FORTIETH CONGRESS.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12, 1868.

SENATE.

Mr. GRIMES, from the Committee on Naval Affairs, made a report on the resolution in regard to navy yards, passed in December. Ordered to be printed.

Mr. SHERMAN introduced the following bill declaring the State of Alabama restored to the right of representation in Congress:

WHEREAS, The people of the State of Alabama have, in strict compliance with the 5th section of the act of March 2d, 1867, entitled "An act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," formed a Constitution of the United States, framed by a Convention of delegates elected in compliance with said act;

AND WHEREAS, Said Constitution has been ratified by a majority of the qualified persons voting on the question of ratification, and said Constitution contains all the guaranties required by said act, therefore,

Be it enacted and declared by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, &c., That the State of Alabama is entitled to representation in Congress, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted thereof on taking the oath prescribed by law. Referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Mr. CONNESS introduced a bill to grant aid in the construction of a railroad from Vallejo to Humboldt Bay, California. Referred to Committee on Public Lands.

Mr. WILLIAMS, from the Committee on Finance, reported a joint resolution declaring the meaning of the law relative to the settlement of accounts, and defining the jurisdiction of accounting officers, and recommending the passage of a suitable bill.

Mr. YATES, from the Committee on Territories, reported a bill to admit Colorado as a State, and gave notice that he would call it up at an early day.

On motion of Mr. HOWE, the Senate took up the bill pending yesterday for the relief of heirs of Major General Richardson, which passed by thirty-one to fourteen.

By permission of Mr. DAVIS, who had the floor on the Supplementary bill,

Mr. JOHNSON moved to take up the case of Senator Thomas of Maryland.

Mr. SUMNER opposed the motion, saying he had intended to address the Senate on the subject, and had not expected the resolution would be called up during the debate on Reconstruction.

Mr. SHERMAN suggested the resolution be disposed of and the Senate go into executive session.

Mr. JOHNSON'S motion was adopted by consent.

Mr. MORILL, of Maine, called up the resolution for inquiry into the forcible ejectment of an employe of the Senate from the cars of the Alexandria and Georgetown Railroad.

In the course of the debate Mr. CONNESS urged the immediate consideration of the question of the rights of American citizens abroad, and complained of the delay of the Committee on Foreign Relations in acting on his resolution offered last month, to which Mr. SUMNER replied the subject was receiving constant and careful attention, both by the Committee and State Department, and that their action would be soon made known, and would, he believed, be satisfactory to the Senate and the entire country.

After a lively debate a motion to refer to the Judiciary Committee was lost and the resolution passed.

The bill for the promulgation of the laws of the United States was taken up, amended and passed.

Mr. PATTERSON, of New Hampshire, offered a resolution that the Secretary of the Treasury be requested to furnish the Senate with information of the number of assessors employed by the Internal Revenue Department during the past year Adopted.

On motion Mr. SHERMAN, the Senate went into Executive session, and subsequently adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. WILSON, of Iowa, introduced a bill for the surrender of persons convicted of certain crimes. Referred to the Judiciary Committee. It enacts that no person who may be duly convicted, or adjudged guilty of murder, piracy, assassination, arson, robbery, or forgery, and where the conviction has not been reversed, shall be allowed to enter or remain in the United States, and it authorizes the President, upon the production of satisfactory proof that the person so convicted of either of such crimes has entered, or is about to enter the United States, to cause him to be sent back to the country from whence he came, or in which he may have been convicted. The bill has been drafted by the Secretary of State.

Mr. VAN AERNAM offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Invalid Pensions to inquire whether the Pension Bureau cannot be reorganized so as to promote efficiency and economy in its administration.

Mr. HUMPHREY introduced a bill to amend the act of 1845 extending the jurisdiction of the United States District Courts to certain cases on the Lakes. Referred to Judiciary Committee.

Mr. HUMPHREY presented a resolution of the Buffalo Common Council, asking an appropriation sufficient to complete harbor improvements there on a plan recommended by the United States Engineers Department. Referred to Committee on Commerce.

The bill reported from the Committee on Foreign Affairs, concerning the rights of American citizens in foreign States, came up as business of the morning hour, and a desultory discussion arose as to the question of closing debate and disposing of the various amendments which had been already suggested.

Mr. BANKS declared himself unalterably opposed to incorporating in statutes of the United States the offensive English principle that the Legislature can confer or withhold the power of expatriation. That was the doctrine of Lord Palmerston's dispatch to Mr. Bancroft in 1849 or in 1850. At length Mr. BANKS, having allowed the amendments of Messrs. Butler, Spalding and Boyer to be offered, moved the previous question, the effect of which would be to cut off further amendments.

The House by a decided vote refused to second the previous question, and Mr. JENKS offered his amendment, by way of a substitute, declaring the rights of expatriation and naturalization are declared to be and have been part of the public law of the United States, and directing the Executive to insist on the recognition of such rights by the Governments of all other nations.

Mr. JUDD offered his amendment, as indicated at the close of his speech last Wednesday.

Mr. BUTLER offered an amendment as a substitute for Mr. Jencks' amendment, which was not read.

Mr. PRUYN offered an amendment in the way of an additional proviso.

The morning hour having expired the bill went over till to-morrow and all the amendments were ordered to be printed.

The SPEAKER presented a memorial of business men in Cincinnati in favor of the resolutions adopted by the Manufacturers' Convention in Cleveland, Sept. 18th, 1867.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union, Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, in the Chair, and resumed the consideration of the Legislative, Executive and Judicial Appropriation bill.

The regular annual discussion over the appropriations for the Agricultural Department, and particularly over the item of twenty-five thousand dollars for seeds, occupied a large part of the time spent in committee, covering various questions as to economy, extravagance, cabbage and turnip seeds, squashes, cucumbers, &c. No new points were developed.

Mr. DONNELLY moved to amend the bill by inserting items for the department of education to the amount of $11,500.

Mr. PRUYN and Mr. GARFIELD supported the amendment. Mr. WASHBURNE, Illinois, and Mr. WOOD opposed it, the latter admitting that the object of the Committee on Appropriations was that it might work a repeal of the act constituting the Department. The gentleman at the head of it had not spent two months out of the twelve in Washington.

Without a vote the House adjourned.

Liming a Tiger.

An ingenious mode of tiger killing is that which is employed by the natives of Oude. They gather a number of broad leaves of the prauss tree, which much resembles the sycamore, and having well besmeared them with a kind of birdlime. they strew them in the animal's way, taking care to lay them with the prepared side uppermost. Let a tiger but put his paw on one of these innocent looking leaves and his fate is settled. Finding the leaf sticking to his paw, he shakes it in order to rid himself of the nuisance, and finding the plan unsuccessful, he endeavors to attain his object by rubbing it against his face, thereby smearing the ropy birdlime over his nose and eyes, and gluing the eyelids together. By this time he has probably trodden upon several more of the treacherous leaves, and is bewildered with the novel inconvenience; then he rolls on the ground, and rubs his head and face on the earth in his efforts to get free. By so doing he only adds fresh birdlime to his head, body, and limbs, agglutinates his sleek fur together in unsightly tufts, and finishes by hoodwinking himself so thoroughly with leaves and birdlime, that he lies floundering on the ground, tearing up the earth with his claws, uttering howls of rage and dismay, and exhausted by the impotent struggles in which he had been so long engaged. These cries are a signal to the authors of his mischief, who run to the spot, armed with guns, bows and spears, and find no difficulty in dispatching their blind and wearied foe.

CHINESE MOHAMMEDANS—An American missionary has recently, most unexpectedly, encountered a Mohammedan community in one of the interior provinces of China. It is estimated that one-third of the population of the province are followers of the False Prophet, and as a necessary consequence, speakers of the Arabic language. The missionary has sent for a supply of the beautiful Arabic Bible, prepared by the missionaries of the American Board, for the Turkish Empire. Thus the gospel will be introduced into the interior of the great kingdom of China, by means of a translation of the Scriptures prepared for an entirely different people. It is one peculiarity of Mohammedanism, that wherever it goes, it carries the Arabic language with it; and men are taught to read the Koran in the language of their prophet, instead of having the Koran translated into their particular language.

—The London Review says of the Poet Laureate: "Mr. Tennyson has grown weary of incense. He is sick of indiscriminate praise. A surfeit of vague adulation has produced a strong reaction; and he gives everybody notice that henceforward he will not take any more, and that there is no use in offering it. It seems that his innumerable admirers have always been in the habit of sending him manuscript verses and letters in tolerable quantities; but that this token of popular regard has lately increased to a quite unbearable extent. He will no more answer these vague letters from strangers; he will no more read their thin versicles; he has closed the door of his heart against them, and not the most touching appeal nor the most astounding flattery will draw from him the boon of an autograph. He has requested the newspaper press to inform all whom it may concern of this his final decision."

HOW TO SUPPRESS A RUM MILL—At New Paris, Ohio, the other day, a number of ladies determined to avail themselves of their "leap year" privileges by getting up a "surprise party" and calling upon a couple of gentlemen who had recently established a whiskey shop in that town. Armed with their knitting work, the party marched to the saloon, helped themselves to seats, made themselves as comfortable as possible, and staid till night. Next morning the same party called again, remained throughout the day, were re-enforced by a strong party of recruits toward nightfall, and did not depart till nine o'clock. The disgusted publicans, swearing that "not a d—d man came in" during the two days, quietly pulled up stakes, packed up their unsold rum, and evacuated the town without waiting for a third visit.

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, February 12.—The American newspapers containing the report of Congressional proceedings on the matter of allegiance and citizenship have been received. The comments of the press here are generally favorable to the views expressed in Congress. The speech of General Banks is especially noted and commended.

William B. Brett, member of Parliament from Helestone, has been appointed to succeed Selwyn as Solicitor General.

TURKEY.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 9 via LONDON, Feb. 11.—Official advices from the seat of War in Candia, dated on the 26th of January, have been received by the Cabinet of the Porte. The dispatches detail the movements of the Imperial troops, and call attention to the fact that the United States war steamer, Ticonderoga, mounting nine guns, and forming part of the American squadron, has arrived on the coast of Crete, under special orders received from Admiral Farragut, in command of the American fleet in the European waters. It is also believed and understood in the political circles of Turkey that the remainder of the vessels of the United States fleet under Admiral Farragut will leave their present stations at an early day and sail for the Grecian Archipelago, where they will muster in force.

ABYSSINIA.

LONDON, EVENING—February 12.—Important dispatches have been received from Abyssinia. At last accounts General Napier was at the front, pushing on the advance, and the hostile force were drawing nearer to each other. Reports reached Annesley Bay that skirmishes had already taken place between the British advance and the forces of King Theodore, but no particulars are given. Official dispatches from General Napier are anxiously awaited.

GERMANY.

BERLIN, February 12.—The North German Gazette, generally regarded as the private organ of Bismarck, has an editorial to-day in which it finds fault with the policy of the Austrian Minister, Baron Beust, and declaring he is pursuing a dangerous course in too zealously befriending the exiled princes of Hanover.

THE GRANT-JOHNSON CORRESPONDENCE.

Opinions of the New York Press—Herald for Grant for President.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, February 12.—The Tribune, alluding to the Grant-Johnson correspondence, says General Grant utterly overthrows the charge of insubordination, and that President Johnson comes out of the business as one willing to wound yet afraid to strike.

The Herald expresses no opinion on the correspondence, but comes out for Grant for President.

The Times thinks Grant may have been hasty and inconsiderate in giving the President to understand that he would aid him in keeping Stanton out, and neglectful in not notifying the President that he had changed his mind as to the requirements of the law, but as to his final action there can be no doubt of its propriety.

The World regards Grant as convicted of duplicity and pursued a tortuous, unmanly course.

The Sun says the insidiously devised net wherein the President and his four servitors sought to ensnare Grant, is utterly destroyed. They were wicked enough to suggest a blow, but too cowardly to strike.

The Post says the President in the matter merely plays the scold.

The Commercial thinks that both the President and Grant acted honestly and honorably, and regards the conflict as one of the miserable relics of radicalism.

Yosemite Valley Grant—Mining Matters in Idaho.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 12.—In the Legislature to-day the House passed, over the veto of the Governor, the bill alienating a portion of the Yosemite grant made to the State by Congress, on the condition that it be kept for public enjoyment and recreation. The bill requires the consent of Congress to its provisions.

Advices to February first from Idaho represent the mining interests unusually flourishing. One hundred and fifty thousand dollars were shipped from the Owyhee district during January.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Admission of Colorado as a State.

The Third Party Movement.

The Freedmen's Bureau Partially Discontinued.

The Johnson-Grant Correspondence

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12, 1868.

COLORADO AS A STATE.

The Senate Committee on Territories to-day made a favorable report on the Senate bill to admit Colorado into the Union, concluding as follows: "As it has been the practice of the Government to admit new States without requiring any specified amount of population, and as the present population of Colorado appears to be equal or more than of many States heretofore admitted, and as it appears it is almost the unanimous wish of the people to be admitted under the present bill, and as Congress has expressly voted her admission by an enabling act, it seems but just to the people of Colorado that the plighted faith of the Government should be made good by her admission as a State, which your Committee unanimously recommend." The Committee show an improved condition of the Territory, including an increase of population since the former bill was vetoed by the President.

The third section of the bill declares that this act shall take effect with the fundamental and perpetual condition, that within the State of Colorado there shall be no abridgement or denial of the exercise of the elective franchise, or of any other right to any person by reason of race or color, excepting Indians not taxed, and neither this condition nor the laws of Congress securing such equality of rights now in force in the territory of Colorado shall be abrogated or set aside, anything in the constitution or laws of the State to the contrary notwithstanding. The right to require and enforce a compliance with and obedience to the same is expressly reserved to the Congress of the United States. The time for holding the election for members of the Legislature and for State officers to be not later than sixty days from the passage of this bill, and the time for the meeting of the Legislature not more than thirty days after the election.

THIRD PARTY MOVEMENT.

Information in Conservative circles is to the effect that considerable progress has been quietly made throughout the country, by those prominent in the Philadelphia Convention, toward the inauguration of a combined movement looking to the formation of a third party upon the former plan of that Convention. Hostility both to Grant, and such Democrats as Pendleton and Seymour, will mark the action taken, and the name of General Dix, which is constantly used by these men, indicates the kind of party organization contemplated. There have been numerous private meetings of sub-committees, in various parts of the country, and it is expected that the National Committee, appointed at Philadelphia, will assemble here.

PARTIAL DISCONTINUANCE OF THE FREEDMEN'S BUREAU.

The order, discontinuing the Freedmen's Bureau in Maryland, Kentucky and Tennessee on Saturday next, will probably be carried into effect. Secretary Stanton has declined to revoke or suspend it, probably because he does not care to interfere while matters at the War Office are in such an uncertain condition, and Gen. Grant can't now annul the order he made as Secretary of war ad interim. The matter has been brought before Congress, but that body has not yet indicated a disposition to do anything in the premises. Every officer of standing in the three States named, and hundreds of other prominent individuals, have asked for a suspension of the order, and it is represented that the Bureau should not be withdrawn before summer.

WILL CASE DECISION.

The Supreme Court, in an opinion on a will case, decided that a citizen of this District or of a Territory does not come under the clause of the Constitution relative to the powers of the Judiciary.

JUSTICE FIELD INVESTIGATION.

The House Judiciary Committee will hold their next meeting to-day, and take testimony in regard to charges against Justice Field.

APPOINTED TO A CLERKSHIP.

Major. B. B. French, formerly Commissioner of Public Buildings, has been appointed to a fourth class clerkship, at a salary of $1,800, in Treasury Department, vice Samuel McKean, disbursing clerk of the Department, deceased.

WHISKY METER COMMISSION.

The Commission appointed under a joint resolution of Congress to examine the spirit metres and other modes of assessing tax upon distilled spirits are now holding their session in this city.

COURT MARTIAL APPROVED.

The action of the court-martial at Fort Wayne, Michigan, dismissing from the service Brevet Captain E. L. Palmer, First Lieutenant Forty-third United States Infantry, for conduct unbecoming an officer and gentleman, has been approved and that officer dismissed.

GRANT JOHNSON CORRESPONDENCE.

The Reconstruction Committee will hold another meeting to-morrow and resume the examination concerning the Johnson-Grant Correspondence.—General Grant has not yet been subpoenaed.

NOMINATION CONFIRMED.

The Senate has confirmed the nomination of General Noah L. Jeffries, of Maryland, as Register of the Treasury.

SOUTHERN STATES.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

VIRGINIA CONVENTION.

RICHMOND, February 12.—Retrenchment was the order of the day in the Convention.

A resolution was adopted discharging all committee clerks. Another was adopted dispensing with stenograpic reports of debates after Saturday, it having cost over four thousand dollars.

E. M. Scofield, brother of the Commanding General, has been appointed Assessor of this city.

GEORGIA CONVENTION.

ATLANTA, Feb. 12.—In the Convention to-day, Aaron Alponia Bradley, a colored member, was, by a unanimous vote, expelled, for gross insults offered to the Convention. The third section of the franchise ordinance, which proposes to disfranchise until January 1st, 1869, all who cannot register under the Sherman bill, was defeated by the adoption of Mr. Miller's substitute. The latter disfranchises only those convicted of treason, embezzlement of public funds, malfeasance in office, crime punishable by law with imprisonment in penitentiary, or bribery, and also idiots and insane persons. It was adopted by yeas one hundred and fourteen, nays sixteen, four-fifths of the negroes voting in the affirmative.

NORTH CAROLINA CONVENTION.

RALEIGH, February 12.—In the Convention to-day, in Committee of the Whole, the question of abolishing all distinctions between Courts of law and Courts of equity was discussed and the Committee instructed to report in favor of abolishing such distinctions.

General Canby and staff arrived yesterday and visited the Convention to-day.

Governor Worth's council on yesterday recommended the appointment of Colonel C. A. Cecily, of Caldwell county, and late of the United States Army, to fill the vacancy on the Superior Court bench, occasioned by the resignation of Judge Fowler.

SOUTH CAROLINA CONVENTION.

CHARLESTON, February 12.—The Convention to-day adopted ten more sections of the bill of rights.

FLORIDA CONVENTION.

TALLAHASSE, Feb. 11.—A majority of the convention met last night and entered their protest against the action of the minority. The convention then deposed Mr. Richards from the chair and elected Horatio Jenkins President. The convention reorganized and appointed a new committee, deposed the sergeant-at-arms, and elected M. Martin in his place. A resolution was passed declaring that the convention has power to compel the attendance of absentees.

TALLAHASSEE, February 12.—In the Convention twenty-nine delegates were present. A resolution asking Congress to repeal the cotton tax was adopted. The Sergeant-at-Arms was directed to notify the minority members of the regular session, and that their presence was required. Only three of the minority have taken their seats since the return of the majority.

It is understood General Meade leaves the subject of eligibility to the Convention.

A resolution was adopted calling for an investigation of the conduct of a colored delegate, charged with making an incendiary speech at a mass meeting on the 8th inst., in which he encouraged riotious proceedings against three delegates who had gone with the absent majority, proposing to tar and feather, hang or burn them. The Convention went into secret session to consider the matter. Gov. Walker and Judge Randall were called as witnesses to the proceedings. Some of the minority say they intend to meet on Saturday, and resume pursuant to their adjournment, but it is considered unlikely.

MISSISSIPPI CONVENTION.

JACKSON, February 12.—The Convention Treasurer reported that many collectors declare themselves powerless to collect tax, and requested a resolution to be passed asking General Gillem to issue an order compelling payment. A resolution to that effect was introduced. A member said General Gillem told him he would not comply with it, unless it be changed, whereupon an amendment was offered requesting General Gillem to reply to the Convention immediately what he would do. Adopted with the amendment and sent to Gen. Gillem.

ARKANSAS.

LITTLE ROCK, Feb. 12.—The Arkansas Convention proceedings to-day were unimportant. Mr. Longly, Radical, supported a resolution in favor of female suffrage. Mr. Cypert offered an amendment that if the wife voted the husband should not. Tabled.

LOUISIANA CONVENTION.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 12.—The Convention to-day only disposed of a few minor financial matters, and discussed the motion to authorize the Committee on the subject to report such verbal amendments to the Constitution as it thought proper. An effort was made to repeal article eighty-six, relative to Judicial Department. It was finally referred.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

—A letter from the Internal Revenue office at Washington to the United States Assessor of the St. Louis (Mo.) District, notifies him that the House Committee of Ways and Means are unanimously of the opinion that the tax upon cigars can best be secured by affixing a stamp to each cigar and requests him to obtain an opinion of the trade upon the subject. With this view, Mr. Papin, the Assessor, submitted the letter to an informal meeting of cigar makers, and there was an almost unanimous opposition expressed to the plan, on the ground of trouble and inconvenience; but another and formal meeting will be held in a few days, at which the parties interested will give a more careful and particular expression of their opinions.

—Among other propositions made to the Congressional Committee of Ways and Means, is one from a western delegation of whisky men, to allow them in case the two dollar tax is retained, a drawback, it is termed, for the cost of freight upon every barrel of whisky sent to an eastern city. The Committee is considering this proposition seriously, as they have determined to keep up the tax. Another proposition is to place the tax at fifty cents on the whisky sold at wholesale and retail, and the two dollar tax on what is disposed of by the retailers.

—Governor Brownlow, of Tennessee, sent a message to the Legislature yesterday relative to the strike on the Memphis, Clarksville and Louisville Railroad. He declares the resolution of the strikers to prevent the running of trains, except the mail train, until all arrearages are paid, a conspiracy against the State, and recommends some action on the subject. He also recommends that the affairs of the road be wound up and the road sold to secure the State interest.

—A train which left Omaha at eleven o'clock on Monday morning for Chicago, met with a serious accident about midnight. Soon after passing Marshal, Iowa, three cars were thrown from the track and precipitated down a steep embankment. Two cars took fire, one of which was wholly destroyed. The train contained very few passengers, the most of whom sustained slight injuries. A broken rail was the cause of the accident.

—At Buffalo, yesterday, six highway robbers were sentenced to the Auburn State prison for an aggregate term of sixty-four years and six months, viz: Wm. Montagne, nineteen years and three months; Wm. Anderson, ten years and three months; Felix McCaskey, nine years and three months; Michael alias Cadwell Whelon, nine years and three months; James Hallestock, a negro, five years and three months.

—Resolutions sustaining General Grant in the controversy with the President, and declaring him the choice of Tennessee for the Presidency, were adopted by the lower branch of the Tennessee Legislature yesterday. A substitute favoring General G. H. Thomas was rejected.

—At St. Albans, Vermont, Tuesday night, Augustus Marango, a boarding house keeper, fatally shot John Austin, who, with some comrades, had smashed in the windows and attempted to enter the house of Marango.

—A telegram was received yesterday from the Mayor of Halifax, Nova Scotia, thanking the citizens of Toronto, Canada, for donations for the benefit of the distressed fishermen, and stating that no further contributions were required.

—The Binghampton, N. Y., charter election, on Tuesday, resulted in the election of a Democratic Mayor and City Aldermen.

—The German Savings Institution of Memphis suspended yesterday. Liabilities fourteen thousand dollars. Assets sixty thousand dollars.

—A French woman, living in the suburbs of Memphis, was ravished by two negroes a few days since. The police are after them.

Alabama Election.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MONTGOMERY, February 11.—In thirty-four counties the vote for Constitution stands 57,733. Registration in same counties 111,269. This includes all the negro counties, but Hale and Marengo. The twenty-six remaining counties have white majorities. To carry the Constitution 86,000 votes must be polled.

—The London Star is witty: "The land in England is said to be owned by some thirty thousand men. We have heard of a person who was awfully uneasy in his mind lest these thirty thousand, out of patience with strikes, disgusted with reform, worried by railroads, shocked at the increase of population, should one day combine and give the whole British nation notice to quit."

—The Continental journals have been quarreling for some time past about this question: "What European country can boast the largest number of beautiful women?" It is generally conceded now that Austria is the "land of beauty." Among its Sclavonic races the number of beautiful women is surprisingly large.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION

Object of the Convention—Temporary Organization—Permanent Officers Elected—Delegates Elected—Resolutions, &c., &c.

The delegates elected at the Democratic primary meetings held in the several districts of the county on Saturday last, assembled in convention at the Court House yesterday morning, at eleven o'clock, for the purpose of electing delegates to the State Convention, to be held at Harrisburg, on the 4th of March next, which Convention, in addition to nominating a State ticket, elects delegates to represent the State at the National Democratic Convention.

The meeting, like Democratic meetings generally in this county, was enthusiastic and boisterous, and was conducted in a modern democratic manner.

The several Courts of the county being in session, the delegates assembled in the License Court room, on the second floor of the Court House, where the morning session was conducted.

The Convention was called to order by T. J. Keenan, Esq., Chairman of the Democratic County Executive Committee, who, in a brief address, stated the object of the meeting, and after referring to the recent victories of the party, etc., he said that according to the usages of the party it would be unnecessary to elect a temporary chairman, as the Chairman of the Executive Committee acted in that capacity. In order to perfect the temporary organization, however, it would be necessary to elect temporary secretaries, in accordance with which C. B. Strain, John S. Murray, John C. Barr and J. O. Lambert were appointed Secretaries.

The delegates were then requested to hand their credentials to the Secretaries, preparatory to a permanent organization, and the request was complied with by those having credentials. Quite a number, however, reported verbally, not having been provided with the article. In calling over the list of districts it appeared that twelve were not represented, and in three districts the seats were contested.

On motion of John A. Elder, a Committee on Contested Seats was appointed by the President as follows: Messrs. John A. Elder, Wm. T. Farley, James P. White, of McKeesport, Wm. Reel and John Mackin.

On motion of D. D. Bruce, a Committee of five was appointed on Permanent Organization as follows: D. D. Bruce, J. K. Kerr, Simon Johnston, John R. Large and J. A. Strain.

On motion, the Convention adjourned to meet at half-past one o'clock in Common Pleas Court room.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Convention re-assembled in the Common Pleas Court room at half past one o'clock, and was called to order by the Chairman, who stated that several delegates had arrived, who were not present at the morning session, and requested that their names be added to the list.

The Committee on Contested Seats reported in favor of admitting the following delegates: Oakland, A. W. Foster and J. C. Barr; Eighth ward, P. O'Brien and Wm. Griffin; First ward, Allegheny, William Wolfindale and S. R. Johnson.

Mr. Sawyer moved to amend the report by substituting the names of Wm. M. Murray, in place of that of J. C. Barr, in Oakland township, Wm. R. Stimple and R. G. Dunn, in the Eighth ward, and J. K. Murphy and William Phillips, in the First ward, Allegheny.

J. H. Sawyer stated that he had been informed the gentlemen whose names he proposed as delegates had not been heard before the Committee, and he was informed that one of the gentlemen admitted by the Committee was not a resident of the district which he was admitted to represent.

Mr. Barr said if the gentleman referred to him he had been misinformed.

Mr. Sawyer—You are the man.

The amendment was voted down and the report of the Committee adopted.

The Committee on Permanent Organization was then called upon to report, and presented the following list of officers:

President—R. H. Kerr.

Vice Presidents—W. D. Moore, Thos. Donnelly, Henry Meneld, John Mackin, J. B. Fulton, Peter Hutchinson, A. W. Foster, J. C. Buffum, James Irvin, H. B. Cochran and Barnes Ford.

Secretaries—Chas. B. Strain, O. C. Lambert and J. O'Donnell? Mr. Lambert being absent the name of W. R. Rafferty was substituted.

The report was adopted.

Mr. Kerr upon taking the chair produced two sheets of "foolscap" closely written with matter originally intended for "Resolutions," but his election to the chair preventing his acting on the committee, on resolutions, the manuscript was read as an "inaugural" address, and loudly applauded by the "unterrified" and boisterous throng.

On motion a committee of nine was appointed by the chair to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the convention.

J. H. Sawyer desired to know whether, after the committee had made their report resolutions could be offered.

The chairman said: "Of course, common sense rules the Convention."

Mr. Strain moved that when the convention proceeded to vote for delegates, to the State convention, that the voting be by marking.

Mr. Murry moved to amend by adding "and the district system be adhered to."

The chair declined to entertain the motion as an amendment and proceeded to put the original motion, which caused considerable confusion. The motion prevailed.

Mr. Murry renewed his motion, and it was voted down.

After several important motions upon which there was loud, boisterous and prolonged discussion, the Chair announced that the Convention was now ready to receive nominations for delegates to the State Convention.

This announcement created a scene of great confusion, as almost every delegate in the Convention had a friend whom he wished to send to Harrisburg.

The Chair declined to entertain any nominations until order was restored.

A delegate moved that "all delegates not elected to the Convention be excluded."

After some time order was restored and the Secretary read over the nominations, when another scene of the wildest confusion ensued.

Mr. Bruce moved that a committee of thirteen be appointed to whom should be referred the nomination of delegates to the State Convention, to be afterwards submitted to the Convention. The motion met with little favor and was finally laid on the table.

Mr. Strain then moved that the nominations close.

The Secretaries were again required to read over the list of candidates, when it appeared that there were thirty aspirants for the honor of representing the county in the State Convention.

It was then moved that the eight candidates receiving the highest number of votes should be declared the choice of the Convention.

A delegate objected, saying he wanted no minority delegates.

The motion was lost.

Mr. Taylor said that the name of Mr. O'Donnell was the third man mentioned, and he appeared near the foot of the list. He therefore desired to withdraw his name from the list. His request was granted.

The Convention then proceeded to ballot for delegates, which resulted in the selection of the following named gentlemen: R. H. Kerr, John A. Strain, J. C. Barr, Jas. Hopkins, Jas. Mackin, B. Kane, J. B. Sweitzer and Robert Morrow.

C. B. Strain moved that a committee of fifteen be appointed to conduct the campaign. Adopted.

The report of the Committee on Resolutions was then read by Col. J. K. Kerr, who afterwards made a regular Democratic speech, abusing the Republican party and recommending the adoption of the resolutions.

The following are the resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

The Democratic party of Allegheny county met in Convention, believing that they owe it to themselves and their fellow Democrats throughout the land, as well as to the conservative citizens of the whole country, not to be misunderstood on the vital issues presented to the people of the United States for their adjudication, publish the following declaration of principles.

First—Whilst we recognize with profound gratitude to Divine Providence the close of a bloody, sectional and suicidal war, and give our hearty thanks and admiration to the heroic valor and patriotism of the citizen soldiery whose precious blood, shed on many a battle field, made peace and Union possible, we denounce as treachery to the living and to the dead of this great nation the malignant, cruel, oppressive and unlawful legislation by which that peace has been virtually destroyed, and that Union, for which so many bled and died, indefinitely postponed.

Second—We declare our unalterable opposition to the whole series of acts styled Reconstruction acts, as designed primarily to retain in power, in defiance of the freemen of the North, an unscrupulous faction through the instrumentality of an ignorant, vicious and semi-barbarous race, and designed incidentally to degrade, humiliate and destroy the South by substituting for the christian civilization of the white race the vice, the ignorance and the bloody and brutal superstitions of a race which from the earliest period of human history has shown itself least susceptible of cultivation and improvement.

Third—We declare our hostility to the mode of executing these laws as equally dangerous to the civil liberty of the nation, inhumanly oppressive to the objects of this legislation; laws confided to men accustomed to command and not to reason; withdrawn from the scrutiny of Courts and juries, excluding all appeal and review; enacted in defiance of the organic law of the land; superceding the Judiciary, and deposing the Executive; committing the liberty, the property and lives of eight millions of people to the irresponsible control of a military dictator, and erecting on the ruins of constitutional freedom the most shameless, absolute and atrocious despotism upon earth.

Fourth—We recognize the obligation of the government to meet all its obligations according to the letter of the law creating them. More than this would simply be robbing of the poor and humble for the benefit of the rich and powerful, and to all discriminations in the mode of paying the creditors of the country, or in levying taxes for the support of the government, whether in the case of bondholders, national banks, or any other corporations or individuals, we are unalterably opposed.

Fifth—That we deem it premature and inexpedient at this time to indicate any choice of candidates, and pledge ourselves to the support of any man who shall be designated by the proper Democratic Convention, State and National, and instruct our delegates to labor for the success of our principles, in the way which shall seem best to their judgment after conference with the representatives of the Democratic party from the whole Commonwealth.

Mr. Sawyer attempted to offer the following resolution, but was choked off by cries from the Convention for Mr. Moore:

Resolved, That it is the duty of every true and enlightened friend of Constitutional Liberty to sanction the President of the United States in his great effort to perserve the Constitution, and maintain the Union of the States, and equal rights of the people against Congressional usurpation and revolution. He has survived the patriotism, statesmanship and integrity of the abolition party, and while it has degenerated into a passionate, wicked, wanton and revolting faction, exercising power in impudent defiance of the Constitution and the rights of the States and people, he stands confidently, proudly and hopefully repelling their desperate assaults.

Mr. Moore took the stand and harangued the convention with a tirade of abuse upon the Republican party, which was received with loud applause by the delegates, and outsiders.

At the conclusion of Mr. Moore's remarks, Mr. Sawyer again attempted to get his resolution before the Convention, but was prevented by a motion to adjourn, which was entertained by the chairman, notwithstanding he had promised Mr. Sawyer that he should be heard.

A Model Dental Depot.

Yesterday we paid a visit to our esteemed friend, Dr. George W. Spencer, at his great steam dental establishment, No. 254 Penn street, and found him as busy as ever dealing with a throng of patrons. Perhaps the merits and abilities of no other professional gentleman in the State are better known or appreciated by the masses than those of Dr. Spencer. With the practical experience of nearly a whole life time, large and careful study, and inquiry and thorough examination into the mysteries of the teeth and the science of dentistry, we do not wonder at the general recognition of Dr. Spencer's claims on the confidence of the community. His laboratory is one of the most complete in the country, and is in its wonders, its delicate machinery, its chemicals, neat mechanical instruments and hundreds of other novelties, charms the visitor with admiration and interest. The teeth manufactured here are gems in their way, and when inserted fit to nature and are equal to the old fashioned ones whose places they fill. The Doctor employs a large force of skilled artists, who thoroughly understand every department of the business, and whose work will stand close examination, and comparison with the best furnished by the famous Parisian laboratories. Teeth are extracted without pain at this establishment, and are plugged in the most skillful manner. We commend this well conducted dental depot of Dr. Spencer in the heartiest terms to our readers, and trust its claims will be fully understood by all contemplating having their teeth extracted, plugged or new ones furnished.

Severely Injured.

About eleven o'clock yesterday morning Mr. Cochrane, commission merchant on Liberty street, met with a serious accident while out driving. In crossing the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad on Penn street, his horse took fright at an approaching locomotive and started to run. At the corner of Canal street the wagon came in contact with a loaded vehicle, and the shafts were broken off, thereby liberating the horse. Mr. C. still held firmly to the reins and was pulled violently to the ground, having first been thrown some distance in the air by the force of the collision. He was dragged along the ground for some distance by the reins, and when picked up was found to be insensible. He was carried by officer Bolster, of Allegheny, into the commission store of Scott & Gisal, where Drs. Cowley and McCann attended him. He was found to have received a severe shock, which confused his mind very materially, but his injuries are not thought to be dangerous. No bones were broken, and it is hoped no internal injuries have been sustained.

An Unlucky Train.

Yesterday morning a train on the Allegheny Valley Railroad, freighted with oil, from Franklin to this city, when near Logansport ran upon a broken rail, throwing six cars from the track, each of which contained two tanks of oil, wrecking the cars, and destroying the tanks. The remainder of the train after some little delay proceeded on its way until it arrived opposite the Soda Works, when another broken rail interfered with its progress. This time two cars, one containing two forty barrel tanks, and the other one having a ninety barrel boiler tank, were thrown from the track and precipitated over an embankment into the Allegheny river. The head of the long tank was broken out and the oil wasted. The forty barrel tanks are lying on the ice uninjured, and the cars are a perfect wreck. No persons were injured by either of the accidents.

South Side Annexation.

At a meeting of the East Birmingham Council, Monday evening, Mr. C. Feld called attention to the fact that more than three-fourths of the people of Brownstown, Lower St. Clair township, are desirous to consolidate with East Birmingham. This step they would prefer to that of creating a new borough, which was mooted among them. Mr. Feld moved, therefore, that the Burgess be authorized to call a public meeting of the citizens of East Birmingham and Brownstown to arrive at the feeling of the people on the subject.

Burgess Fate stated he understood there was a project on foot to consolidate all the Southside boroughs into one city.

The question was put on Mr. Feld's motion, which was carried. Saturday evening, at half past seven o'clock, was fixed for the meeting, to be held in the Walton Edgine House, Sarah street.

Amusements.

THE BLACK CROOK.—This grand spectacular drama continues to draw immense audiences to the Opera House, and we imagine that since its first production the coffers of that worthy place of amusement have been placed in a plethoric condition. The play is put on the stage with decided effect, and is calculated to entertain the audience from the rising of the curtain to the falling thereof. It shows good signs of running a week longer, but it is not probable that it will be permitted to remain on the boards longer than Saturday night next. It is certainly worthy the large measure of success it enjoys.

MASONIC HALL.—Breaking from the worn out and thread bare line of tricks in the art legerdemain, Logrenia, the greatest of great wizzards, the king of all conjurers, held enraptured and spell bound, at Masonic Hall, last night, one of the largest and most appreciative audiences we have ever seen drawn together in this city. His brilliant reputation was more than sustained, and every body in attendance was delighted that they had been deluded, and deluded so cleverly as to defy detection. The fame of Blitz, Anderson, Hambujer and the Fakir of Ava grows dim before this new star that has flashed upon the boards to amuse, entertain and deceive the intelligent. But the manipulating abilities of the conjurer are not the only attractions offered at Masonic Hall. The wonderfully well trained birds, and cats, and rats, and mice, a truly happy family, excite an unusual burst of applause as they perform antic feats which an Agassiz would hardly credit them with being able to perform. Readers who would enjoy an hour or two of rational amusement should favor Masonic Hall with a visit.

A Magnificent Instrument.

The well known music dealers, Messrs. Hammer & Teorge, No. 50 Seventh street, have received the sole agency for Western Pennsylvania, Northwestern Virginia and Eastern Ohio, of the magnificent instruments known as the Portable Pipe Organs. These organs have been awarded the highest praise by the most eminent artists and musical authorities of the country, and are declared to be unrivalled by any other instrument of sustained sound now before the public. Its advantages are patent to any person skilled in musical matters, and may be briefly stated. In them you have the genuine pipe tone with wonderful range, sweetness and volume; is portable and takes up no more room than the ordinary parlor organ of reed sounds; is very cheap, being furnished at one-half the cost of the organ built on the old plan. They are adapted to a wider range of music than the piano, and as an accompaniment to the human voice in singing are vastly superior to any instrument ever introduced, while they are equally well adapted to harmonizing with the piano, harp, violin, flute, clarionet, or any musical instrument. When these organs are generally known they will have large sale, as their high merits over all other instruments cannot fail to be appreciated.

The Douglass Brick Machine.

In bringing this invention to the notice of the public, the proprietor says: that it is considered by those competent to judge to be the most powerful and effective of any brick machine now in existence, and withal, the perfect embodiment of simplicity in construction and positive motion.

These requisites have heretofore never been found combined in any one machine; and while it will be universally conceded that power and simplicity are essentials, there are many other advantages possessed by this invention which will be recognized by the practical man on examination.

Any information, as to the machine or purchase of rights, will be furnished by addressing R. A. Douglass, Esq., 130 South Fourth street, Philadelphia.

Great Clearing Out Sale.

Our readers, one and all, who are in need of anything in the way of dry goods, boots, shoes, &c., are invited to visit the Mammoth Masonic Hall Auction House of Messrs. Smithson, Vanhook & M'Clelland, Nos. 55 and 57 Fifth street. The firm have on hand a very large stock of goods, including the lines mentioned above, and are determined to close them out at prices which cannot fail to attract all buyers. Money saved is money earned, and this house is the place to buy to save money. Goods are advancing in the East, but notwithstanding this firm is offering the most extraordinary inducements to buyers. Everything in the line of dry goods, boots, shoes, gaiters, slippers, &c., can be had there.

Embezzlement.

An information was made before Alderman McMasters on Tuesday, by two of the stockholders of the Pittsburgh and Monongahela Coal Company, against T. Walter Day, Secretary and Treasurer of the company, charging him with embezzlement. Several weeks since the suspicions of the stockholders were aroused, it being thought the affairs of the company were not properly conducted. An investigation resulted, by which it was discovered that a deficiency existed of $22,000, for which Mr. Day was accountable. It is said that the fraud was skillfully managed by making false entries in the books. The accused was arrested by Alderman McMasters and held to bail in the sum of $10,000 for his appearance at Court.

A Nice Lady.—The Cincinnati Commercial has the following item: Minnie Grey, the stylish female, recently arrested as a professional confidence woman, was to have been examined yesterday in the Police Court, but owing to the absence of witnesses her case was continued one day. When she appeared in Court she adopted the old plan of wrapping her veil closely about her face, so as to hide her features. She succeeded in this, with the exception that she failed to conceal the very prominent aquiline nose that somewhat detracts from her beauty. Not desiring to appear in striking colors, she had modestly turned her handsome velvet cloak so as to exhibit the plain brown of the inside. This is the same woman who victimized one of our charitable citizens a few days ago.

On a bleak cold night last week a wealthy landlord turned from a miserable tenement a miserable occupant, who had failed to make payment of rent. The tenant is an old man, past three score, blind and decrepid, and had living with him a little son of eight summers and a helpless daughter but few years older. The landlord not only turned him out of house and home, but seized on his scanty effects to secure the paltry sum due for rent. Some charitable citizens took the old man in out of the cold and provided for the children. Verily, such stony hearted landlords will have small stores laid up in heaven.

Meals fit for a king, at very reasonable prices, may be obtained at Holtzheimer's Continental Dining Rooms, Fifth street, next door to the Postoffice, at any hour of the day.

Call at Bates & Bell's, No 21 Fifth street, for bargains in foreign and American long and square shawls, piece goods, dress patterns, &c., &c.

Common Sense.

Are human beings silly enough to bawl, bellow, scream, yell, groan, or grunt with pain and torment, when they can, free of expense, have all pain of any name or nature, instantly removed? Will they pay dollar after dollar to doctors, and yet constantly suffer misery? We know better, and facts prove to the contrary. Dr. Wolcott's office is crowded with patients, at No. 170 Chatham Square, New York, and 622 Arch street, Philadelphia, from sunrise till nine o'clock at night. The doctor accepts of pay from no person, yet, with his miraculous remedy, Pain Paint, he gives a full release from pain instantly. Thousands of helpless, hopeless invalids send to the druggists for the Pain Paint, and thus at their quiet homes apply the liquid. Druggists are apt to urge off and sell the small 25 cent bottles, if possible, when they know that for all long standing and chronic ailments the patient ought to have the large size, or $5 bottles. The large bottles hold eight of the dollar bottles. Get the large bottles or send to the doctor's office for them.

But the doctor has another remedy which has been established and is in fact the only real standard medicine for Catarrh; it is the instant Pain Annihilator. Over 100,000 bottles are sold each month. Over 2,000 signatures from medical men of the highest standing attest its virtues. The doctor says that more than one-third of the entire population are victims to this loathsome disease of the head. Catarrh he affirms to be an ulceration of the head. The phlegm and matter form, this filthy sore drops in the throat, and causes the patient to hawk and spit, and at night, while asleep, it steals down the throat into the stomach. And in the morning the patient finds his stomach choked up with the phlegm and matter that falls into his throat while asleep, and endeavors to clear his throat of the nausea ing mucous. But it shortly undermines the constitution, finally ending in consumption. Bronchitis is the legitimate child of catarrh in every instance. Troches and all palliatives cannot in any case reach the fountain, in the head, where the polluted festering corrosive pus or matter issues. Snuff or dust of any manufacture aggravates and never, never cures this disease.

A sneeze is nature's emphatic No, always, and is produced in consequence of an irritation of the membranes of the head. Nature speaks out loud and says No at every sneeze. She also opens the water ducts and floods the nostrils with water to drown out the intruder, just as the ducts of the eye are open when dust afflicts that organ. Taking snuff will produce catarrh. Doctors in general know hardly anything about or understand this universal complaint, Catarrh, and they are honest enough to admit it. The patient feels dull, heavy and sleepy; having seldom any pain, his fears are not aroused until perhaps too late.

He catches cold constantly in the head, sometimes running at the nostrils, eyes often weak, nostrils inflamed, breath sometimes reveals to his neighbors the corruption within, while the patient has often lost the sense of smell. The disease advances cautiously, while ringing noises in the head, or deafness ensues. Pain in the chest, lungs, or bowels startle him; hacks and coughs, has dyspepsia, thinks he has liver complaint, wants to take a blood purifier or cod liver oil. Bosh! The foul ulcer in the head cannot be reached by such nostrums. He becomes nervous, his voice is harsh and unnatural, he feels disheartened, memory loses her power, judgment her seat, gloomy forebodings seem to hang overhead like a pall. Hundreds, yes, thousands, seek a rope, a river, a revolver, or razor, cut themselves the miserable thread of life. The world looks on and wonders that a man surrounded by all the charms and opulence that gold can give, should deliberately choose a quiet grave, where the weary are at rest; others drag on a weary life and sink under lung complaints by inches. Many hire some miserable scamp or some big sounding charlatan, having such a string of promotions from Europe and elsewhere that they actually bewilder and dazzle their victim, who at once comes down with the dust, pay $5 for a useless examination, $50 more as part payment for the job cure. Of course the dupe is not silly enough to pay the balance, but thanks God he was not killed outright by the outrageous treatment. The villains coolly write a flaming certificate and attach thereto the victim's name.

Dr. Wolcott tries to use common sense. He tells his patients, who have Catarrh, to use a pint bottle of his Instant Pain Annihilator in seven days, according to directions. If benefitted, continue to use a pint each week until cured.

Ordinary minds can comprehend plain truth, and his statement will be backed up by all who love commercial honesty. We would advise our readers to cut this out, as it is the plainest statement they have had the pleasure to read concerning a disease universally prevalent, and if not afflicted themselves, to send it to any friend who may have Catarrh. Dr. Wolcott most emphatically cautions the public against purchasing any of his preparations unless in pure white outside wrappers. Touch none in brown or tinted wrappers at any price, if offered by druggists. Look twice at the wrapper when you buy, and get the genuine, or send to the Doctor's office for it, at No. 170 Chatham square, New York.

Mme. Da Paiva's Mansion.

The Paris correspondent of the Boston Saturday Evening Gazette gives the following glowing account of a house Mme. de Paiva has built in Paris. He says:

She has built in the avenue des Champs Elysees one of the most splendid mansions in Paris. The steps are of the costliest marble, the bannisters are of bronze, and the molds were broken after the bronze was made. The doors and mantel-pieces of her drawing rooms are made of malachite. This stone is so costly (although not reckoned among the precious stones) as to be worn quite frequently as a breast-pin. You may have heard the story of one of our bankers and Prince Demidoff, who owns the quarries whence malachite is drawn? The banker saw the Prince admiring his breast-pin, and, ignorant of the history of the stone, said, "It is beautiful, isn't it? Do you know the material? It is exceedingly costly." Prince Demidoff replied, "Yes, I am quite familiar with it; my mantel-pieces are made of it," to the confusion of the banker.

The walls of the drawing room contain pictures, one by Mons. Boulanger representing Catherine of Russia arresting by a smile Turkish soldiers, another by Mons. Elle Delaunay exhibits Diana of Poictiers presenting Jean Goujon and other great artists of her day to Henry II; another still by Mons. Compt is a scene in the life of Louis XIV and Mme. de Maintenon; the fourth is by Mons. Levy, and represents Cleopatra's first interview with Anthony. One may remember Mme de Paiva ordered from Mons. Gerome a picture with the first interview between Cleopatra and Cæsar for its subject. He painted the picture, but they failed to agree on the price, she thinking eight thousand dollars too much for it, offered to give five thousand dollars, which Mons. Gerome declined and found at once a purchaser at his price. The drawing room ceiling is painted by Mons. Gerome; the theme is the hours of dawn, sunrise, noon and sunset.

Her estate is now immense. She owns the almost royal Chateau de Ponchartrain, where she keeps an immense retinue of servants; her gardeners and hostlers are English; her laundresses and dairy-maids are Dutch; she has Italians for macaroni and ices, and French for pastry, &c., in her kitchen, and Swiss guard her estate. She has tried in vain to get into good society; but as she is "very particular" whom she receives, her only female company is recruited from decayed families of the Faubourg St. Germain, who are only too glad to get a good dinner.

Such men as Messrs. Sainte Beuve, Nisard, Feuillet de Conches Theophile Gauthier, Philarete Chasles, Renan and Prosper Merimee are her habitual guests.

—Some one has written three short and pithy sentences to the London Times, that have an application to other cities also, as follows: "They are thousands of hungry men out of employ at the East end. There are miles of infamously filthy streets, and pathways at the West end. Are there no means of bringing the two together?"

The Pittsburgh Gazette

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1868.

WILL the Post condescend to enlighten the public as to its present views of the Supreme Court of the United States? A recent event has created much solicitude to hear what it may now have to offer on that fruitful theme. Break, oh! break, the ominous silence.

THREE STATE ELECTIONS occur in the spring. In New Hampshire on the second Tuesday of March; in Connecticut on the first Monday of April; and in Rhode Island on the first Wednesday of April. The Democrats have had no chance of success in the latter State for a number of years. Connecticut they have carried, and in New Hampshire have waged contests indicative of hopes. In these last two States, the present season, the canvass is unusually animated, and the look-now is that the Democrats will be handsomely routed in both.

CONNELLSVILLE RAILROAD.

From the annual Report, just published, of the President and Directors to the stockholders of the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad Company, we learn that the gross earnings for the past year were, from passengers, $174,630; freights, $312,931; mails, $3,650; miscellaneous, $6,960—total, $498,180. The expenses were—Conducting transportation, $71,349; Repairs of motive power, $99,240; maintenance of cars, $28,975; maintenance of road, $107,653; general expenses, $17,989—total, $325,208. Leaving net earnings, $172,972; equaling 34 73-100 per cent. which is 1 24-100 per cent. better than the previous year. A year ago the floating debt was $59,305; now $36,995.

Expenses have been increased to provide and impose the Company's property in Pittsburgh for parties engaged in the retail trade in coal and coke. Payment of forty thousand dollars in bonds, due in 1869, on purchase of this property, has been extended until the Company shall be in condition to meet it. Sums have also been expended in filling the various trestles. At Sand Patch tunnel $6,000 was used.

THE OIL INSPECTORSHIP.

In another column will be found the Petroleum Inspector bill as it passed the Senate. It will be seen that several important amendments have been incorporated into it, including one, the result of our criticism, providing that adulterated oils, seized and condemned by the Inspector shall be sold only to manufacturers to be distilled over again.

It is presumable that in substantially the present shape the bill will pass the House of Representatives, and become a law. Indeed, it is understood that in the form the bill has assumed the manufacturers and dealers do not object. These find fault with no enactment directed to secure honesty in the manufacture and sale, so as to protect at once the pockets and lives of the people. What they found fault with was the imposition of a tax, for the benefit of the Inspector, amounting to much more than $100,000 a year, and interfering by new brands with the foreign traffic.

In this connection it may be remarked that the laws of Congress provide for no other inspection of oils, than such as is requisite to guard the revenue from frauds. The inspection is rather to determine quantity than quality. Perhaps other duties on the part of Federal Inspectors, may be inferred, but no specific instructions are given for the application of the fire test, or any other means of bodily security to the users. The bill, as it stands, provides an inspection for what is used in the commonwealth, at moderate cost, and will create no disturbance in the European market. Hence it will have no tendency to drive the oil business into other States, and from the lines of our great Railroads.

THE GRANT CASE.

The President and the members of his Cabinet, failing to make a tool of Gen. GRANT—nay, finding themselves circumvented and beaten by his cool deliberation and prompt action—resolved to seek revenge by damaging his personal reputation for frankness and veracity in the general estimation, so as to render him a less formidable presidential candidate than he otherwise would be. After incubating their plan of attack for several days, it was on yesterday revealed to the public. The letter of the President is characteristic—forcible, direct and unmistakable. He charges Gen. GRANT with prevarication, if not with falsehood. His vehemence shows how much his temper has been roiled by the action of the General. Unfortunately for him, the witnesses he adduces to make out his case, fail him; more, they confirm the General's statement in all essential particulars.

The accusation of the President is that Gen. GRANT, after a consultation promised originally to hold on to the War Office, against the judgment of the Senate, so as to force Mr. STANTON to made an appeal to the courts; that afterwards they had another interview, in which the case was re-argued, and the General, undecided, promised to see the President again before relinquishing the portfolio with which he had been entrusted.

Independently of the President's witnesses, we may ask, what need of so much argumentation by the President, and so many promises to assume all responsibilities, if the General concurred with the President in opinion as to the Office Tenure law, and Mr. STANTON's position under it? All this goes to show that the General was widely separated from the President in opinion, and that uncommon pains were used to change his ideas, so as to prevail on him to act in concert with the Administration. What is thus a matter of inference from the admissions of the President, is fully confirmed and established by the statements of Mr. SEWARD and Mr. BROWNING. That this may distinctly appear, we deem it best to cull out of the deluge of words, the heart of all they really affirm.

Take Mr. BROWNING first. He says the President and the General "continued the conversation for some time, discussing the law at length, and finally separated without having reached a definite conclusion, and with the understanding that the General would see the President again on Monday." Farther on he says the General "finally left without any conclusion having been reached, expecting to see the President again on Monday."

That does not sound as if the General had entered at all into the scheme for keeping Mr. STANTON out of the War Office. It reads exactly the other way.

Now, let us see what Mr. SEWARD says as to the General's giving a pledge to act in unison with the wishes of the President: "You claimed that General GRANT finally said in that Saturday's conversation that you understood his views and his proceedings thereafter would be consistent with what had been so understood. General GRANT did not controvert, nor can I say that he admitted this last statement." And again: "He acquiesced in your statement that the Saturday conversation ended with an expectation that there would be a subsequent conference on the subject, which he as well as yourself supposed could seasonably take place on Monday."

So, then, according to these witnesses, no agreement was arrived at after all that Saturday's argument. The General was far enough from entering into the views of the President, and was so understood. From this disagreement arose the desire of the President for another meeting on Monday.

Mr. BROWNING narrates that Gen. GRANT "then proceeded to explain why he had not called on the President on Monday, saying he had a long interview with Gen. Sherman, that various little matters had occupied his time until late, and he did not think the Senate would act so soon, and asked, 'Did not Gen. Sherman call on you on Monday?'"

On this head Mr. SEWARD states "General GRANT made another explanation, that he was engaged on Sunday with General SHERMAN, and thought also Monday, in regard to the War Department, with a hope, though he did not say in an effort, to procure an amicable settlement of the affair of Mr. STANTON, and still hoped it would be brought about."

Instead of going to the President himself, he sent General SHERMAN, and as an "amicable settlement" did not follow, General GRANT acted squarely up to the view of the law and his duty under it, which the President well knew he entertained.

Simmered down, this is the net product of this case. The witnesses of the President fail to make good for him his case.

PITTSBURGH was ably represented in the recent National Commercial Convention, which held its session in Boston, her delegates, Messrs. George W. Cass, James I. Bennett and F. R. Brunot being fair exponents of our business brains and talent. The latter gentleman offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That in any readjustment of the tariff laws, specific duties whenever practicable and home valuation in cases where ad valorem is deemed important, are necessary in order to secure to the government its just dues, and to the industry of the country and to honest importers protection against the injuries they suffer in consequence of evasions and frauds upon the revenue.

Mr. BENNETT, from the Committee on Manufactures and Agriculture, reported the following resolution, which after considerable discussion was also adopted:

Resolved, That the natural market of agriculture is the home market, and that all the interests of this great and growing country should be so arranged as to harmonize, and that in a revision of the tariff laws the duties should be so adjusted as to keep the balance of trade in favor of this country, and at the same time afford the greatest protection to domestic labor and production by placing upon those articles in which labor constitutes the greatest proportion of cost the highest duties, thus encouraging the importation of the laborer instead of the completed fruits of his labor.

LEGISLATIVE MATTERS.

The Oil Inspection Bill.

Following is the bill to appoint an inspector of refined petroleum, kerosene and burning oils in and for the county of Philadelphia, as passed by the Senate on Tuesday:

SECTION 1. That no refined petroleum, kerosene, or burning oils, except in bond or for export beyond the limits of the State, shall from and after the passage of this act be kept for sale or on storage within the corporate limits of the city and county of Philadelphia, the fire test of which shall be less than one hundred and ten degrees Fahrenheit; said test shall be determined by an inspector using Tagliabue's or other well defined instruments; the inspector to be appointed by the Governor of this Commonwealth, and to hold his office for the term of three years, and the said inspector be and is hereby authorized to appoint such clerks as may be requisite for the carrying out of the business of such inspection, and of the provisions of this act, said clerks or deputies to be paid by the said inspector out of the fees of his office. The said inspector, prior to entering upon the duties of his office, shall file in the office of the Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas an oath or affirmation that he will well and truly perform the duties of his office and carry out the provisions of this act, and shall also file a bond, with one or more approved sureties, in such a manner and form as the high sheriff of said county is required to enter, in the penal sum of twenty thousand dollars for the faithful performance of the duties herein prescribed. The said inspector is further empowered to receive and collect from the owner or owners thereof the sum of ten cents for each and every barrel or package so inspected, marked or sealed by him, said mark brand or seal to be provided by the inspector and to be legibly stamped or impressed upon each barrel or package. And the said inspector or his deputy is hereby empowered to enter any place or building where oils are stored or kept for sale, except United States bonded warehouses, for the purpose of such inspection and the carrying out of the true intent and meaning of this act.

SEC. 2. Any person who shall violate the provisions of this act, or shall in any manner sell, deliver, or cause to be sold and delivered, any refined petroleum, kerosene, or burning oils, except oils in bond or for export beyond the limits of the State, within the limits of the city and county of Philadelphia, without having the same inspected and the seal or mark of the said inspector placed thereon, or shall use any mark, brand or device for the purpose of evading the provisions of this act, or shall adulterate oils after the same shall have been inspected, shall upon conviction thereof be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be subject to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, and be liable to an imprisonment not exceeding one year, in the discretion of the Court. And the oils so found with a fraudulent brand or mark of inspection, or adulterated after such inspection, shall be subject to seizure by said inspector, and the same shall, after due public notice thereof, be sold by the inspector, for the purpose of redistillation or export. The proceeds of such, after deducting the expense of such seizure and sales, shall be paid by the inspector into the treasury of the association for the relief of disabled firemen of the city and county of Philadelphia.

SEC. 3. Nothing contained in this act shall be construed or held to apply in any manner to any kind of oil in bond, or for export beyond the State, nor to whale or lard oils.

Proposed Registry Law.

Mr. Shoemaker has introduced in the Senate a "further supplement to the act relating to elections of this Commonwealth." It requires the Assessors, on receiving their transcripts from County Commissioners, to make an alphabetical list of white freemen above twenty-one years of age who are known or shall claim to be qualified voters, and opposite said names to designate whether the person is or is not a householder, the number of his residence, and its location; if not a householder, his place of boarding and with whom, and if working for another, the name of his employer; when the party is a foreigner, and claims to vote by reason of naturalization, he shall exhibit his certificate thereof to the Assessor, unless he shall have voted at a preceding general election, and on exhibition of the certificate the name shall be marked with the letter N; where the party has merely declared his intention to become a citizen, and designs to be naturalized before the next election, the name shall be marked D. I; where the claim is to vote by reason of being between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two, the word "age" to be entered; if the party has moved into the district to reside since the last general election the letter R to be placed opposite the name; and in all cases a tax shall forthwith be assessed against the person. On the completion of lists and assessments they are to be returned to the County Commissioners, who shall cause duplicate copies, with observations and explanations noted, to be made as soon as practicable and placed in the hands of the Assessor, who, prior to the first of August next ensuing, is required to put one copy thereof on the door of the house where the election of the respective district is required to be held, and retain the other in his possession for the inspection, free of charge, of any resident of the election district who shall desire to see the same. It is also made the duty of the Assessor to add from time to time, on personal application, the names of persons claiming to vote, and mark opposite their names C V, and immediately assess them with a tax. On the fourteenth day preceding the election in October next thereafter the Assessor is required to produce the list in his possession to the inspectors and judges of the election of the proper district, at a meeting to be held by them on Tuesday, the twelfth day preceding the second Tuesday in October. The election officers, after assembling on said day, shall continue in session to hear proof of the right of persons whose names are contained in the assessor's list, or shall apply to have their names registered, and all persons who have not previously voted in the election district shall make proof, according to existing laws, of their right to vote; like proof to be made by those applying for registry whose names are not enrolled by the assessor, and it shall be the duty of the assessor to forthwith assess said person with a tax as required by law, on proof being made to the satisfaction of the election board. On the list of voters being complete, the election officers shall cause duplicate copies to be made out forthwith, in alphabetical order, one to be placed on the door of the election place, and the other retained by the judge of the election, who shall hold the same for the inspection of any citizen of the district until the day of the general election, and produce the same thereat, and as each person whose name is enrolled votes at such election one of the clerks shall place opposite to the name "voted;" and it shall not be lawful for the officers of the election to receive the vote of any person whose name is not contained in said registry made out and put up ten days before the election, and the reception of the vote of any person not so registered shall constitute a misdemeanor, and the election officers so offending shall be subject to fine and imprisonment at the discretion of the Court. The right of challenge is allowed, notwithstanding the name of the proposed voter has been passed on by the election board. Every foreigner is required to produce his naturalization certificate at the election as required by existing laws, although the same may have been exhibited to the election board before registry, and the vote of such being received, the word "voted" shall be distinctly written on his certificate, with the month and year, and if any election officers, at the same or any other district, shall receive a second vote on the same day by virtue of such certificate, the person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a high misdemeanor punishable with fine and imprisonment, like punishment to be inflicted on the election officers who refuse to make the endorsement on the naturalization certificate. The registry list, on which the memorandum of voting has been kept, is required to be preserved in the same manner as now required by law as to tally papers, and not taken out until after the meeting of the Legislature, unless required in the hearing of a contested election, when it shall be again sealed up and carefully preserved.

On the Thursday twelve days preceding every election for electors for President and Vice President of the United States, the Election Boards and Assessors shall meet, at the place of holding elections, and hear all applications of persons who have been omitted from the registry, claiming the right to vote, or whose rights have originated since the registry was made. At every special ward, borough, or township election, the registry required to be kept may be used as evidence of the persons entitled to vote thereat.

There are other provisions of the act, but the above comprises the main features. Among other requirements is one that election polls shall be opened at seven o'clock in the morning and closed at seven o'clock in the evening.

State Tax on Personal Property for School Purposes.

An act has been introduced in the House providing that the State tax for 1868, and until otherwise provided, levied and collected on personal property under the Act of 29th of April, 1844, shall be released and remitted to the several counties in which it is collected; provided, that such county shall pay the amount due the State for taxes of 1867 and previous years according to existing laws; also requiring County Commissioners, during the first week in June, 1869, and annually thereafter, to apportion the State taxes remitted for the previous year among the school districts of the county on the same basis that the State appropriation is apportioned, and shall draw their warrant on the treasurer of the county in favor of the treasurer of such school district for the sum so apportioned to said district. The provisions of this act it is stipulated shall not apply to or in any way affect the moneys collected by the act of April 12th, 1867, entitled "An Act to increase the revenue of the Commonwealth by taxation of the shares or stock of National Banks."

Mercantile Tax

An act has been introduced declaring the true intent and meaning of the act of April 22d, 1846, to be that a manufacturer or mechanic, not having a store or warehouse apart from his manufactory or workshop for the purpose of vending goods, such manufacturer or mechanic shall not be classified or required to pay the annual tax and license as is now required in relation to foreign dealers, and that an affidavit before an alderman or justice of the peace, or any person authorized by law to administer an oath or affirmation, setting forth the fact that such manufacturer or mechanic has not a store or warehouse apart from his manufactory or workshop, shall be sufficient evidence for the appraiser of mercantile tax not to so classify said manufacturer or mechanic; Provided, That any person swearing falsely in relation to the matter provided for shall be deemed guilty of perjury as if said oath had been taken in any legal proceeding.

—The New York Evening Post contains the following obituary of a gentleman whose name is as familiar as household words to our oil merchants:

"The death of Abraham M. Cozzens was as unlooked for an event as his commercial failure a few days before had been. Mr. Cozzens had many friends in the community to whom he was endeared by his genial and friendly manners, his generous temper and his public spirit. He was a friend and liberal encourager of the fine arts, and at one time the President of the Art Union in this city. His disposition was enterprising, and he was, we think, the first who introduced the manufacture of kerosene in this country, procuring by the action of heat a crude petroleum or rock oil from cannel coal before the oil wells were opened, and then refining it into kerosene. This was succeeded by extensive enterprises in petroleum, to which he owed his unfortunate failure and his death. The circumstances of that failure, operating upon a sensitive and ingenuous nature, threw him into such a state of mental agitation, that he died within a very few days after his failure became known to the public."

ONE CERTAIN AND POSITIVE

PROOF THAT

DR. SARGENT'S BACK-ACHE PILLS

ARE NO HUMBUG, but that they do relieve and cure such diseases as they are recommended for, is that every person who has used them speak so highly in their favor. We are daily in receipt of certificates from well known and reliable citizens, who can be called upon in case the genuineness of the certificate is doubted. The following is from a gentleman who was cured by them, and who has recommended them to others, who likewise have derived benefit from them. A trial of these Pills can do no harm, as they contain nothing injurious, being entirely vegetable.

GEO. A. KELLY—Dear Sir: I was so badly afflicted with pain in the kidneys that I could hardly turn myself in bed, and breathing also caused me severe pain. I had given up hopes of ever getting well again, when I bought a box of Dr. SARGENT'S BACK-ACHE PILLS, which at once relieved me, and I believe they have been the means of the cure. I have also recommended them to others where like complaints were made, and they have in every case proved efficacious. I cheerfully recommend them to any one suffering from this trouble, as I believe they are the best medicine for this class of diseases I have ever heard of. Any further information can be obtained by seeing me at Outer Depot, Penna. R. R., or at my residence, No. 6 Arthurs street.

Frightful Prophecies

CONCERNING THE END OF ALL THINGS are made by religious enthusiasts; and, on the other hand, philosophers insist that the centre of the Earth is a mass of fire—that the poles of the Earth will one day bust the Equator, and that the Sun is gradually fading! Talk like this is very terrible; but, pending such wholesale calamities, it will be as well for each member of society to take care of his or her health, and leave the rest to Providence.

The end comes prematurely to all who neglect the preservation of that inestimable blessing. Suffer liver disease, dyspepsia, chronic constipation or any other ailment to take its course unchecked, and it will assuredly shorten life. It cannot be said that the means of protecting the system against the predisposing causes of disease are withheld. The constitutions and physique of the least robust may be so strengthened and fortified by a course of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS as to render them all but invulnerable, not only to the attacks of epidemic disorders, but also to the ordinary complaints which prevail in all countries and at all seasons. If the immense importance of PROTECTIVE MEDICATION were universally understood, this incomparable vegetable antidote, which is already the most popular tonic in the world, would everywhere be classed among the staples of life, and no family would dare to be without it. The time may arrive when this will be the case, for every year adds hundreds of thousands to the list of those who use it.

Chronic Diseases.

The functions of the human body give way, usually one at a time. A disordered liver, or a slight irritation of the bronchial tubes, an obstruction in the skin or of the renal organs, are sure to be followed by pains and aches in various parts, according to the extent of the organic or functional injury. A man afflicted with dyspepsia will soon find more than the stomach at fault. The food that he swallows fails to renew the natural wear and waste, the worn out matter is deposited in some nook or cranney, where it causes irritation or pain, when it ought to be thrown off and carried out of the system. Hundreds and thousands of just such sufferers have been relieved and restored to health and vigor by a few bottles of DR. KEYSER'S BLOOD SEARCHER, which not only imparts tone to the stomach and digestive organs, but likewise enriches the blood with the elementary principles needful to the restoration of the vital energy of the system. Be careful when you ask for it to get DR. KEYSER'S, for that is the kind, and the only kind, that has cured the numberless cases of disordered and broken constitutions. It was that which cured Mr. Boyd. It was that which cured John Titzell. It was that which cured Margaret McFarland. It was Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher which cured all the old chronic cases which we have published from time to time in these columns. Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher has cured more cases of chronic diseases than any medicine of recent origin. Sold by the gross, dozen, or single bottle, at the Doctor's great medicine store, No. 140 WOOD STREET.

1786. PROSPECTUS. 1868.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE

The largest daily paper in the State of Pennsylvania, enters the 82nd year of its existence with increased facilities for disseminating the current news of the day, and for rendering good political service in the important Presidential Canvass of 1868. The forthcoming session of Congress promises to prove one of the most important held since the formation of the Government, and the proceedings will be anxiously watched by the intelligent masses. In view of the deep interest centered in the proceedings, the proprietors of the GAZETTE have made arrangements for daily dispatches and letters during the session, from a highly intelligent correspondent, who enjoys the confidence and friendship of the leading members of the Senate and House, the heads of the various Departments, and the leading politicians who frequent Washington, so that readers can depend on receiving the first, fullest and most reliable intelligence from the seat of Government.

The proceedings of the State Legislature, at its forthcoming session, will also prove interesting, inasmuch as many questions of importance will come up for legislation. The GAZETTE will keep at the State Capital, during the entire session, an intelligent and faithful correspondent, who will promptly report the proceedings by mail and telegraph.

It is the only political journal of Pittsburgh which faithfully reflects and steadily advocates the principles held by the Union Republican Party, and interpreted by a loyal Congress.

It gives as much reading matter as any paper sold at twelve dollars per annum, while its price is but eight, being the cheapest as well as the largest newspaper in the Commonwealth.

With the enlargement, every department has been strengthened. The high character of its editorial columns will be maintained, and all questions of public importance will be fearlessly discussed.

The news department will be kept up to the requirements of the day, and in condensed items will faithfully mirror all the transactions worthy of note of the City, State, Country and world at large, and maintain for the GAZETTE the reputation of a live, enterprising and first class family and commercial newspaper.

Ample space has been reserved for market reports, which can at all times be relied upon as correct, as the current quotations for manufactures, farm products, cattle, &c., &c., are daily gathered from actual sales, by faithful and efficient reporters.

The river news is collected with care, and will prove a very interesting feature of the GAZETTE.

The financial news department has been placed in charge of an able and experienced banker, who will render it quite an attractive and useful specialty to bankers, brokers and business men generally.

The religious department will receive the attention due its importance, and will be so conducted as to be pleasing and readable to members of all religious denominations.

The agricultural, art, science, literary, personal and other departments of the paper will be conducted in a manner which will prove satisfactory to the reader.

THE WEEKLY GAZETTE.

The WEEKLY GAZETTE has been enlarged to the same size as the Daily, and is now the largest, cheapest and best weekly family newspaper in the State. It should be in the house of every farmer, mechanic and business man. It gives each week forty solid columns of current news by telegraph and mail, the leading editorials of the daily, and a choice selection of literary and scientific items, together with everything important pertaining to the world of politics. Its agricultural columns will be edited in such a manner as to find favor with the farmer and gardener. The market reports of the WEEKLY GAZETTE are by common consent acknowledged to be the standard authority for both buyers and sellers, and in commercial circles in Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and Western Virginia are without equal. The files of the GAZETTE are used exclusively by the Civil Courts of Allegheny county, as references in important issues, to determine the ruling prices in the markets at the time of the business transaction in dispute.

Our Agents will favor us by getting up their clubs at once, and not allowing their present ones to expire, as we are anxious that none of our readers should be deprived of a week's news. Additions to clubs can be made at any time, at yearly rates. Postmasters and Merchants are requested to act as Agents.

J. B. HARRIS'

SAFETY FIRE JACKET,

Car Heater and Moderator,

For SMOKE AND HOT AIR FLUES, dispensing with the use of Stoves and Fires in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of firing the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached.

Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended. It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues, or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto. I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c., wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated, and security desired. I will sell, on application, rights to manufacture or to use the above invention; also, territorial rights, to such as may wish to engage in selling privileges, either by State or county.

WAGES.

Glory of warrior, glory of orator, glory of song,
Paid with a voice that will pass to be lost in an endless sea—
Glory of Virtue, to fight, to struggle, to right the wrong—
Nay, but she aim'd not at glory, no lover of glory she:
Give her the glory of going on, and still to be.

The wages of sin is death: if the wages of Virtue be dust,
Would she have heart to endure for the life of the worm and the fly?
She desires no isles of the blest, no quiet seats of the just,
To rest in a golden grove, or to bask in a summer sky:
Give her the wages of going on, and not to die.

—The Baroness Ebergenyi has at length confessed that at the instigation of Count Chorinsky, who promised to marry her, she murdered his wife.

—Mr. Crawshay, the great Welsh iron merchant, who recently died, left some seven millions of pounds of personal property to his youngest son.

—The British army in Abyssinia is making progress, a fact of interest to Englishmen, as it is about time it should be on the move, either forwards or in retreat.

—The British Society of Foreign Missions distributed twelve millions of tracts at the great exhibition in Paris. How many of them were read is an entirely different question.

—The Chumars, a caste in India, numbering some 539,000 members, have deserted Brahminism and started a new religion, with a high priest and priesthood of their own.

The power of Juarez is strengthened in Mexico, and it would not be surprising to see him lift to his own head the crown which rolled from the corpse of the murdered Maximilian.

—Captain Judkins, the great bear of a Commodore of the Cunard fleet, has commanded the Scotia for six years, and during that time has conveyed 25,570 passengers across the Atlantic without a single accident.

—Schneider the president of the corps Legislatif, the greatest iron producer in France, and the most extravagant exhibitor at the recent exhibition, is bankrupt, with liabilities of at least twenty millions of francs.

—The President of Venezuela has made another new cabinet, as once more most of the members of the old have been killed. It is not an altogether pleasant position, that of Cabinet Minister in a South American Republic.

—Freiligrath, the great German poet whose wonderful oriental poems are among the finest specimens of word painting extant, is at his old home in Rhenish, Prussia, fat, and in the comfortable enjoyment of a sufficient income.

—Von Beust, who not excepting Bismarck, is probably, the most versatile, if not the greatest statesman of Europe, has advised Franz Joseph to cut down the expenses of the Court of Vienna to one-fourth of their present amount, and, the Kaiser has promised to do so.

—General Cluseret, who is now in Paris, was most virulently assailed by the government papers there, because he stigmatized duelling as a cruel, stupid and cowardly custom. Gen. Cluseret is now going to sue these papers for damages, an action which does not add much to his dignity.

—The so-called transfusion process has been revived in Vienna, by a physician who uses it with great success in cholera cases. The blood of healthy young persons is infused into the veins of the patients to the extent of about twenty ounces, and often the effect is instantaneous relief.

—The British Medical Journal is concerned about English workmen; it says that they wear out too soon and die too early, often of preventable diseases; and it is now publishing a series of essays on this subject, which will probably be read with interest, as a large class is vitally interested in the question.

—Count Vitz Thum, the representative of a family which is probably one of the oldest in Europe, and from which the old Saxon family, the Fitz Thums of England sprang, has been engaged by Prince Metternich to edit the memoirs of his father Prince Clement Metternich. Count Vitz Thum is a member of the Saxon cabinet.

—The Russian government has founded a new military school at Orenburg on the borders of Turkistan. One hundred and twenty of the pupils are to be the sons of Tartar or Khirgis chiefs and the remainder are to be Russians, in which arrangement the desire of the government that the various nationalities should fraternise, is clearly shown.

—Since the increase in the pay of the Prussian army, a lieutenant gets twenty-five thalers a month and a small allowance for board. On a salary of this amount it is a wonder the officers are sought after for husbands, and it is not strange that the paternal government of Prussia forbids all officers below the grade of Major marrying without express permission.

—England has a new religious sect whose chief belief is, "cursed is the man that trusteth in man." They call themselves "peculiar people," and never call in the aid of a physician, praying over their sick and having faith. Several arrests of members of this sect have recently been made in London, for neglect of children who died for want of medical aid.

—Partly owing to the injury to the harbor by the recent earthquake, partly to the anticipated transfer of the island to the United States; British steamers from Liverpool no longer stop at St. Thomas to change passengers for Aspinwall to another steamer. Port Royal, Jamaica, is to be the future general depot for exchange of passengers and freight.

—A young woman was recently stabbed thirteen times by her lover, in London, and then forfeited her bail as a witness, and refused to appear against him at trial. Nevertheless, the brutal lover was sentenced to twenty years penal servitude. The girl was afterwards arrested for the recovery of the bond, some $200. Contributions were made for her by various philanthropists, among whom was John Ruskin, and the requisite sum was raised, so that she could go free.

Call at the office of G. H. TOWER, No. 164 Fourth St., Pittsburgh, and get a Geological and Mineralogical Report, made by Professor Wm. F. Roberts, in June 1867.

FARM No. 48. In Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., containing Ninety Acres, lying on the Monongahela river, immediately below Lock No. 2, on which is erected a large brick dwelling house, one log and one frame bank barn, corn crib, wagon shed, brick spring house, granary, work-shop &c. About thirty acres of the same are river bottom, first rate bottom land, the balance limestone soil underlaid with coal, and about twenty acres of limestone. There are two orchards of apple, peach pear and plum trees, in good bearing condition, and also grape vines and other small fruits. The land is well adapted for gardening purposes, being but a short distance from the thriving village of Elizabeth, creating a market at home for all the products. To be sold cheap and on good terms.

FARM No. 49. Containing One Hundred and Twenty three Acres in Fairfield Township, Westmoreland county, Pa., about seven miles south of the Pa. R. R., at Bolivar Station, and 60 miles from the city. The improvements are a hewed log house, a new frame barn corn crib, wagon shed, and good spring house; about 100 acres cleared and fenced; plenty of limestone; convenient to churches, schools, mills and smith shops. This little farm is offered cheap and on good terms. Call soon and get a good bargain.

No. 50. A beautifully situated tract of Sixty Acres of very valuable land, under good fencing. Situated in McCandless township, Allegheny county, Pa., on a Township road, seven measured miles from the market house, in Allegheny city. This tract is well adapted for a garden, or dairy farm, being convenient and of easy access to either city, and near enough to the line of the Mahoning Railroad to make it very desirable for country seats for persons doing business in the city.

No. 51. Two hundred acres of improved land in Ringold county, Iowa, situated one mile west of Mount Ayre, the county seat, in two tracts, one of 160 acres, the other of 40 acres. They both lie on the State Road, leading from Burlington to the Missouri river. On the 160 acre lot, which is in full sight of the town, there is erected a 1½ story frame dwelling house, a large field fenced, and in cultivation; it is high rolling prairie, deep rich black soil, with a small stream of running water in the southeast corner of it. The 40 acre lot is ¼ mile west of the 160 acres, and bounded on the north by the aforesaid State Road. Through it Walnut Creek runs diagonally, from northeast to southwest, and on which is a large quantity of good timber. This land is situated in the southwest portion of the state, near the Missouri state line, and has a warm, genial climate, and being near the county town, where are churches, schools, stores, &c., makes it very desirable.

No. 52. Also 440 Acres in Guthrie co., Iowa, in township 80 North, Range 31 West, being N. W. ¼ sec. 17—160 acres; N. E. ¼ and N. W. ¼ of S. E. ¼ sec. 7—80 acres; and the E. ½ of S. E. ¼ sec. 7—80 acres; total acres, 440. All tillable land. For sale cheap, or will be exchanged for city property at fair rates.

No. 53. Also the best Farm in Young township, Indiana county, Pa., four miles from Western Pennsylvania Railroad, at Livermore Station, containing 300 acres. 225 acres cleared and under No. 1 fencing, as well as fine farming condition; the balance in good white oak timber. The improvements are a two-story frame house, nearly new, of eight rooms each and finished basements and attics, a large bank barn 50 by 80 feet, a two-story spring house and other necessary out buildings, all in good order; 3 acres of orchard of choice varieties of fruits; 3 feet vein of coal (now open) underlying the whole tract, and limestone in abundance, with plenty of springs of never-failing water. Taken all together—houses, fencing, soil, nice lying surface, public highway, churches, schools, mills, &c.—I know of no more inviting and desirable tract of land in Western Pennsylvania.

Together with other large amounts of city and suburban property.

The Farms herein offered for sale are cheap and good, and persons visiting them will not fail to appreciate the advantages of investing in them. The low price at which these lands are offered brings them within the reach of many good practical farmers who, on account of the high prices, cannot purchase farms near the city. Many of the farms are offered at one third less than their value. They are easily accessible by railroad and good public roads. Parties wishing any kind of Real Estate will call on

A GREAT FAMILY CONVENIENCE.

A new and novel arrangement for having

HOT WATER BOILERS

attached to the back end of common cook stoves, so that the waste blaze which goes up the stove-pipe heats all the water needed in an ordinary sized family, by passing the blaze directly through the boiler, which sits over the pipe hole of the stove. This new arrangement can be put on to any No. 7, 8 or 9 common Cooking Stove, of any manufacture. Any person having a TRIUMPH, VICTORY, BLACK OAK BEAUTY or UNION STOVE, or almost any other Cook Stove made in the Union, can have Boilers attached to their Stoves, including the Attachment, the Boiler and Lids, and Bibb Cock, for the moderate cost of SEVEN DOLLARS, by applying to

LEGAL.

ORPHANS' COURT SALE.

Splendid Mansion and Grounds.

On TUESDAY, February 25th, 1868, at 1 o'clock P. M., will be sold at auction, by order of Orphans' Court, an outlot on the Western border of the Borough of Beaver, containing about TEN ACRES. About one-half is a beautiful grove, the residue well improved and planted with apple and peach trees, and a variety of small fruits and shrubbery. The improvements comprise a fine two story BRICK MANSION HOUSE with four rooms on each floor, exclusive of kitchen, wash house and coal house. A good well and cistern and large barn.

The location is one of the most picturesque and beautiful in Beaver county, commanding a fine view of the Ohio and Beaver rivers and of the several villages that cluster near their confluence. It is also extremely eligible with reference to Schools, Churches, Railroad Stations, &c. Probably no place now in the market combines as many conveniences and attractions suited to a gentleman that desires for his residence a spot at the same time secluded from the noise and din of business and quickly and easily accessible from Pittsburgh. This property was the homestead of Charles Stone, Esq., late of Beaver. Terms, which will be easy, made known at time of sale.

Persons visiting this Estate will be attended to and all questions answered by Capt. D. H. STONE, Executor of the estate of Charles Stone, residing on adjoining lot. 1a28:k52

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

THE COURTS.

United States Court—Judge McCandless.

The case of the United States vs. Chas. Bauerheim went to the jury, but no verdict had been rendered at adjournment.

In the case of the United States vs. John S. Markle, indicted for carrying on the business of a commercial and cattle broker without license, a verdict of not guilty was rendered.

In the case of United States vs. George McPherson, a nolle pros. was entered, on motion of the District Attorney.

District Court—Judge Hampton.

Miller vs. Fuller. Action for damages alleged to have been sustained to plaintiff's boat, which was run into by defendant's coal barges. On trial.

Common Pleas—Judge Mellon.

The case of Messrs. Pinkerton & Purvis vs. Wm. L. Gold and wife, was taken up. Action on mechanics' lien to recover $1,160. The plaintiffs contracted for and built a frame dwelling for defendants in McClure township. The defense refuses payment on the ground of defective workmanship and inferior material. Several witnesses were examined, when the Court adjourned to permit the holding of the Democratic Convention.

Quarter Sessions—Judge Sterrett.

The case of the Commonwealth vs. Michael Smhill and Thomas Hughes, indicted for arson, was taken up and was on trial at adjournment. This case was tried during the term, but the jury failed to agree.

The jurors in attendance, except those impannelled, were discharged, so that jury trials for the December term will end with the conclusion of the case on trial.

FACETIÆ.

—Aptly named—Cash-mere shawls.

—Red Sea—prospects of a Cardinal's hat.

—New name for a fog—the air apparent.—Judy.

—An alarming feature—a cannon's mouth.—Judy.

—A musical burglar—one who breaks into a tune.—Punch.

—A precious nosegay—a proboscis blooming with carbuncles.

—An over-worked brain—writing editorials under a press-room.

—A terrible climax—a spider running up a hatchet handle.—Judy.

—No man will ever be able to build a house by carrying bricks in his hat.

—Joke by Judy's watchmaker at Clerkenwell: An escape movement—the late explosion.

—Boiling water is more estimable than cold, because it can't help rising in esteem.—Judy.

—To an old gentleman with false teeth a gold tooth pick is a neat and appropriate present.

—A taking title for a farce for our American cousins—Ala-Bama, or the Forty Thieves.—Fun.

—The Grand Trunk Railway should have its terminus at Saratoga, at least during the summer.

—The Austrian mission is properly so called, since all the persons named for the place miss and shun it.

—The man who drinks to drown care is like one who strives to quench a fire by throwing oil on it.—Tomahawk.

—What is the sensation that an educated person derives from a sensational novel? A sensation of nausea.—Punch.

—Why would Venus descending from Olympus be like a liberal husband? Because she would come down handsome.

—The gentleman who in his youth "courted" Republican principles, is now happily "wedded" to Conservative ones!—Judy.

—The manager of the Chatalet, being asked if he was to give a full dress rehearsal of "Gulliver," replied "Simply impossible."

—Judy asks, Why is an "heir-apparent" to a throne like an umbrella in dry weather? Because he's ready for the next reign.

—Instead of the often quoted "whirligig of time," Fun suggests "flip-f-lapse of time" as more appropriate for the pantomimic season.

—Judy asks, how is it that the Turks express such an abhorrence of wine, seeing at the same time that they publicly approve of their Porte?

—"Woman is a delusion," exclaimed a crusty old bachelor to a witty young lady. "And man is always hugging some delusion or other," was the quick retort.

—The Empress Eugenie recently attended a ball in Paris in a dress of white satin crossed with yellow bands of the same, and a bunch of gold grapes which she wore in her hair.

—The Tribune suggests that the roasting of four insane women, in the burning of the lunatic asylum at Geneseo, N.Y. yesterday, is another argument in favor of fire-proof public buildings.

—An ugly young lady is always anxious to marry, and young gentlemen are seldom anxious to marry her. This is a resultant of two mechanical powers—the inclined plain and leave her.—Fun.

—For very small children it is well to buy freshly painted toys; the sucking of the paint will afford them other pleasures besides those designed by the manufacturer.

—Be sure and attend all the auctions and special sales which are advertised about holiday time; as long as you are to give the articles purchased away, it does not matter if they are a little damaged.

—The gossips at Berlin are somewhat exercised about the rumor that the famous "white lady," the apparition which is said to announce important events in the Hohenzollern family, has again made her appearance at the royal palace.

—Vake, lady, vake! The moon's high, twinkling stars are beamin', while now and then, across the sky, a meteor are streamin'! Vake Sally, vake, and look on me—avake Squire Nubbin's daughter! If I'll have you, and you'll have me—(by gosh! who threw that water!)

—A lady not long since visiting a cemetery, in Gardiner, Me., with her little daughter, observed on one of the stones a neatly cut figure of a horse. Wondering why such an emblem should be used they examined the inscription closely, but could find no clue to its appropriateness, when her little girl remarked: "I presume she died of the nightmare." Notwithstanding the solemn surroundings, the lady could but laugh at the comicality of the idea.

—The Atlantic Cable does tell such lies!—to this country; let us hope not from it.

Query—What are the comparative numbers of falsehoods on an average daily issued from this end of the Cable and that?

All the electric wires, however, from abroad, bring so many false messages, that "telegram" will soon be synonymous with "crammer." Whenever anybody says the thing which is not, his hearers will observe, "That's a Telegram!" and when you tell a girl anything that she doesn't believe, she will exclaim, "O, you Telegram!" instead of "O, you Story!"—Punch.

—In buying anything for a gentleman who smokes, always select one of the many ingeniously impossible articles which are to be found in the fancy goods stores, for that purpose. Cigar-cases that are too short for any brand of cigar, or that would invariably smash a cigar to pieces if placed in it. Cigar boxes with springs which no human being but the tradesman is able to work, and which, when opened, would require a tremendous tax of time and ingenuity to put in or extract a cigar from. Wonderful cigar lights, that are very difficult to ignite, smell frightfully, and send a shower of sparks over the clothing, when you attempt to extinguish them.

—A correspondent of Punch proposes a banquet of horse flesh. The dinner is to be served on a horse shoe table, spread with a saddle-cloth; and the following is the bill of fare proposed:

"First course.—Saddle of horse with capers; vegetable—grass;

"Second course.—Curried horse.

"Obligato accompaniment from Skweeker on one string.

"Tssh....ssh....ssh....(as like a groom as he can make it.)

"This we expect to be very effective, and cause so much emotion that probably no one will eat the curry. Still hock is now to be handed round.

"Third course.—Entrees of horse's trotters, and others kickshaws.

"Air' 'Trab, Trab,' to which they will be sent trotting.

"Salad.—Horse-radish.

Towards the close of the banquet there will be a dish of bridle cake handed round, and the stirrup cup will be set on the table; but before this Knagg and I have agreed he's to ask me to sing. Of course I shall say I'm a little hoarse, and couldn't get through an air. Knagg is to reply he's not particular to a horse hair (good, that, isn't it?) and to press me again, and then I'm to say, 'Nay!' We reckon on some of our guests here rising and saying something good about our horsepitality. We can't very well introduce ourselves, but we shall take care to get up a horse laugh.' Well, then the stirrup cup is to be sent round, and Knagg, rising will give the toast of the evening: Gentlemen, charge your glasses—'The Horse, and Pease to his Mane-s!'

"P. S. I can't help thinking something good might be got out of de-canter. Canter's plain enough, but what the d to do with the de. I'm a moral man, and shouldn't wish to swear.

—It is said that there is no hope of curing Robert Johnson, son of the President, of his habit of excessive dissipation, which amounts to a positive insanity. The keepers of the lunatic asylum in which he has been placed have no expectation of benefiting him.

CITY ITEMS.

Plumbing and Gas Fitting.

During the recent cold weather the gas and water pipes throughout the city have become generally disarranged, and a vast amount of repairs will be necessary to set them to rights again, and in many instances the work to be done is of such a complicated nature that none but the most experienced workmen will be adequate to the task. In this connection we will take occasion to refer any of our readers having work to do of this character to T. T. Ewens, Plumber and Gas Fitter, No. 166 Wood street. Mr. Ewens employs a corps of competent workmen, and uses in his work none but the very best material, so that all needing work in his line will find it to their advantage to give him a call.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
WEDNESDAY, February 12, 1868.

The moment it became known that the Government intended to sell part of what is supposed to be surplus gold, the market became weak, and declined gradually from 143⅜ to 141⅞. The demand for speculative purposes however is very light. Importers are disinclined to buy at present prices, and otherwise the demand is very light. Little gold will go out of the country during the present year for pleasure seekers, the majority of the usual tourists is obliged to stay at home and pay close attention to their affairs here.

The bond market was dull to-day, but towards the close there was more inquiry for bonds as permanent investment.

Stocks are steady but not very firm; the demand for our cheap Railroad stocks is daily increasing. Connellsville bonds, as well as the stock, is in demand; also, Allegheny Valley Railroad bonds and stock, the former at 78, and the latter at 16. Some of the Western Pennsylvania Railroad bonds issued to contractors are in the market at 95, and most of our cheap bank stocks are quietly picked up by men who are able to hold them.

Money is still commanding 9 to 10 per cent. for second class paper; prime will pass at 7¼.

Columbia oil stock is inquired for at 11, but no clue can be found what caused the sudden demand and rise. Triumph is selling from 1 to 1 25. None of the other companies are quoted, but the owners of property in fee simple are taking care to have their titles and affairs in general of companies in such a trim, that they may realize some day at least their outlay.

Closing New York quotations, received by Ph. R. Mertz, are as follows:

Gold, 141¾; 1881's, 112; 5-20s, 1862, 111¼; 1864, 108⅞; 1865, 109⅜; Consols, 107⅜; 10-40s, 104⅞; 7-30s, 107⅛.

—There still continues to a very unsettled feeling in commercial circles, pending the action of Congress upon financial as well as political questions which have an important bearing upon the business interests of the country. Though prices of most staple articles of merchandise are firm, with gold ranging upward, and further contraction of the currency indefinitely suspended, yet the volume of trade shows very little improvement as the season advances, and there is no disposition on the part of buyers to anticipate the wants.

—The New York bank statement shows a reduction in the surplus of reserve this week, and an expansion in loans less than the increase in the deposits. The legal tenders of the banks alone is nearly three millions in excess of the lawful reserve. The bank movement points very clearly in the direction of still lower rates for money, not only on call, but upon commercial paper. Pending the result of the Presidential campaign, says the Tribune, no long engagements for money will be made, causing an accumulation of money on call, which will reduce the rates of interest, and stimulate speculations in fancy shares as rampant as those which marked "the Morse period."

—A New York telegram says: There was a report on the street to-day that the cashier of the American Exchange Bank was a defaulter for a large amount. The fact, as I am able to state officially, is that the assistant cashier is short, and the bank will loose not over sixty thousand dollars. The bank has a capital of $5,000,000, and a surplus of $1,500,000. Nobody will be hurt, therefore. The cashier of the bank is not the kind of a man out of which defaulters are made. Speculators are the cause of the defalcation on the part of the assistant cashier.

—A week or two ago the tone of the dispatches from Washington was to the effect that the present circulation of the National Banks was likely to be withdrawn. A different view of things seems to be in order now. Senator Poland, of Vermont, has introduced a finance bill, and the following are said to be its principal features:

The first section makes it the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to retire as soon as practical all the United States notes from circulation, and authorizes him to fund the same in five per cent. ten-forty bonds.

The second section authorizes the issue of circulating notes to National Banks to the same extent that United States notes are required until the United States notes are reduced to one hundred millions, and requires preference to be given to States and localities not already supplied with bank facilities.

The third section provides that after the United States notes are reduced to one hundred millions, circulating notes shall be issued to all National banking associations which comply with the existing laws and furnish required securities.

The fourth section repeals the present limitation of National bank notes to three hundred millions.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
WEDNESDAY, February 12, 1868.

CRUDE—The crude market, comparatively speaking, was quite active to-day, the reported sales reaching between seven and eight thousand barrels, and while there is evidently a firmer feeling, in consequence of the improved demand, prices are as yet unchanged. Sales of 1000 bbls spot, at 7½; 2000 do at 7⅛; 1400 at 7⅛, 1000 first water, at 8⅛; 1500 for March, seller's option, at 7⅛; and 800 for April, at 7⅜c. The above transactions, to use a common phrase, 'put one in mind of old times," when it was nothing unusual to report from twenty to thirty thousand barrels daily. There is no special cause for this unexpected activity, unless it is that the season is pretty well advanced, and refiners, as a general thing, having become pretty well satisfied that prices are about as low as they will get, feel like stocking up for fear they will have to pay more.

REFINED—Thus far the advance in Antwerp has not met with any response here, further, perhaps, than to establish a firmer feeling, as prices are no better now than they were previous to the advance in that market. This is a little strange, and the only cause we can assign is the fact that speculating in oil has been very unprofitable during the past year, and operators generally are very cautious—having gone through the mill once they do not want to do so again if they can help it. We can report a sale of 7000 bbls—1000 each month, commencing with May and closing with November, at 25c for May, and an advance of half a cent per gallon for each subsequent month; 500 "call" for the last half of July, at 24c, and a dollar; and 500 bbls prime light straw to white, at 21½c.

ARRIVALS—The arrivals of oil by the Allegheny Valley Railroad to-day, were as follows:

New York Dry Goods Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—The market for Cotton goods is excited and moderatively active, and prices are consequently every moment advancing. A leading house among the trade has altered prices three times and yet are not up to the figures of others on many makes. There is a great scarcity of all popular makes of Brown and Bleached Muslins, and prices are evidently going still higher; in fact many styles cannot be obtained at any reasonable prices. For such as New York Mills Bleached Muslins, the last quotations we had for these brands was 26c, but if they were on sale now, the goods would very readily bring 30c. The Wamsutta brands are also very scarce, and so are all Muslins above 17c. It is impossible to fill orders on this class of goods. Prints of the loom are worth 18c. New York, Ida Mills and Forest Dale are 16¼c. Heavy Brown Sheetings of the best makes are scarce and are worth 17½c, while other makes equally as good, such as India Head, have been selling at 16¼c, which is now too low. The only thing which has not yet felt the advance is brown drills; the Pepperell is selling at 18c; B. Boate 16c; Stark 15½c; Amoskeag 18c; Columbia Raven's Duck 25¼c. Print cloths have sold at 8¼c. The calico market is consequently quite active and greatly excited. The Merrimack Co. have advanced the prices to 14¼c for D; 15¼c for Ward and 16c for do pinks and purples, but the jobbers are selling D, at 13½ and 14c, and W at 14¼@15c. There were sales of Cocheco at 13¼@14¼c for fancies; Spragues 13c, but agents prices were 13½c and withdrawn; Pacific 13c. Dunnells, American and Gloucester 12½c. Gloucester shirtings 13¼c, at which price Stewart & Co. show a magnificent business Amoskeag 12c; Lowell and Wamsutta 9½c all the latter are sold out and will be higher. Ginghams are tending upwards, although Hampton can still be bought at 15c. Of jobbers Delaines can be bought at 18c but will advance to at least soon.

RIVER NEWS.

The weather continues clear and pleasant for the season, and while it thaws slightly through the day, where exposed to the sun, it freezes pretty keenly at night. The river was receding slowly last evening with eight feet three inches in the channel, and there was but little ice coming out of the Monongahela.

The Leonidas took on considerable freight yesterday, and cleared for New Orleans last evening with a very fair trip. It is to be hoped that she will be more fortunate than when she last attempted to get out.

The Yorktown succeeded in getting up from Glass House yesterday, and, we presume, that the Lawrence, Armenia and Kenton will arrive here to-night or to-morrow.

The Allegheny river is still closed hard and fast, and is likely, judging from present indications, to remain so for some time to come.

The Kate Robinson, Capt. Robt. Robinson, having her cargo almost completed, will be among the first to take her departure for Cincinnati and Louisville, and the same is true of the Messenger, for St. Louis. The Camelia is the only boat here loading for Nashville.

Captain James Mellon received a telegram from Wheeling yesterday, stating that the Glendale, which boat has been lying high and dry on the landing at that place for some time past, was again afloat all right. There has evidently been a gorge below Wheeling, otherwise she could not have been got off, as there would not have been water enough.

Private telegrams from Pomeroy report the sinking of the towboat Alex Chambers at that place by the ice, we presume. She was insured here but to what amount we did not learn.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—The new and commodious side-wheel packet J. N. McCullough, Captain Geo. D. Moore, will leave to-day at noon positively for Wheeling and Parkersburg, and passengers and shippers will please bear this in mind and act accordingly. The McCullough is one of the finest boats that comes to this port, and she is in charge of experienced and courteous officers.

The St. Louis Republican continues to poke fun at the Louisville papers, and their pet the Richmond. To illustrate, that paper of Sunday says that the Continental on her last trip to New Orleans had 8827 tons of freight, and 53,090 sacks corn, the largest cargo ever carried on the Western waters. The following is a full list of the extraordinary cargo of the Continental, as reported by the Republican:

53,090 sks (3,185 tons) corn, 6,500 bales (1,787 tons) cotton, 3,600 sks (272 tons) oats, 500 head (300 tons) horses, 300 head (197 tons) mules, 280 head (218 tons) cattle, 768 head (98 tons) hogs, 4000 bales (700 tons) hay, 1000 hhds (958 tons) tobacco, 500 tcs (91 tons) lard, 6100 bbls (671 tons) flour, 400 bxs (50 tons) eggs, 937 barrels (55 tons) potatoes, 1000 bbls (105 tons) pork. Total, 8827 tons.

We are not very much interested in this matter, but we think that the less the Louisville papers now say about the Richmond, as a big carrier, the better, and for the sake of common decency, they ought to yield the palm to the Continental.

A late St. Louis exchange says: We noticed "on 'Change" the veteran Capts. W. J. Kountz, of Pittsburgh, and Adam Jacobs, of Brownsville, Pa., looking after the Mountain business the Government contract for, which is to be let by General Donaldson Monday noon.

A Memphis paper says: We regret to learn that the widow of Captain Booker, who died in New Orleans, was a loser in the Gayoso Savings Bank. She had just received $6000—the amount of insurance on her husband's life, and deposited it in that institution. Several of our steamboat friends have suffered severely by this failure.

The Dubuque papers hugely puff Captain Webb, and announce that he has tendered his resignation to Commodore Davidson, of the N. W. U. packet line. He commanded the Itaska five years.

We extract the following late river intelligence from the Cincinnati Commercial, of Tuesday:

Navigation is again resumed from Cincinnati to Cairo. The Maysville packet departed for Maysville yesterday, but finding the floating ice too heavy, returned to Cincinnati and laid up in Licking river. The ice in the latter stream ran out yesterday morning, sweeping off one loaded and one empty coal barge, the former owned in Pittsburgh, and the latter belonging to the Syracuse Coal Company. The ice also caused the steamer Fleetwood to part her lines at Gilmore's wharf, and make a trip without steam down as low as the foot of Central avenue, where she was safely landed, when steam was raised, and the Fleetwood safely landed at her accustomed berth below the foot of Main street. At four p. m. a huge field of ice came down past the wharf, creating considerable consternation among the boats, and damaging the Delaware, Starlight and Bertha. The latter had a number of stationary fenders broken; a portion of the larboard guard crushed in to the hull, and several barrels of oil destroyed, and some of her merchandise damaged. The steamers Goldfinch and Rose Hambleton were at Evansville last night, with 1500 bales cotton from Memphis for Cincinnati. Almost a tragedy occurred on the Major Anderson last evening at Louisville. Mr. McCormick, inventor of the Automatic Fireman, now being placed on the Anderson, was accidently poisoned by eating a piece of bread and butter covered with arsenic, left in the pantry by the watchman. By prompt application, the poison was counteracted, and he is considered out of danger. The Emperor, from Memphis, passed Cairo yesterday, with 1100 bales of cotton for Cincinnati. The P. W. Strader, from New Orleans, also passed Cairo with seventy-seven hogsheads sugar, forty barrels molasses and twenty barrels oranges for Cincinnati. Jas T. Black, of Dubuque, an upper Mississippi river pilot, ruptured a blood-vessel, and died suddenly, in Cairo, Sunday night. The Geo. D. Palmer, recently sunk in Arkansas river, has been raised. The Florence Traber, also sunk in the same stream, will also be raised. The Centralia brought to Memphis yesterday 425 bales cotton for the Underwriters, saved from these steamers, principally from the latter.

MEDICAL.

A GREAT

CURE OF ASTHMA.

I feel myself under obligations to you, as well as a duty I owe to others who have been like sufferers with myself, in order that they may know where they can get cured. I had been subject to violent, continued attacks of ASTHMA for more than six years, and had been to great expense and to various medical men of experience without obtaining any permanent relief, relieved at all. I was so bad that I never knew what was to be free from the disease. I had to sit in bed every night for weeks and weeks, without any prospect or hope of cure. My condition was such that I felt life a burthen, and when I got an attack I felt in danger of suffocating every moment. So terrible had been my suffering that my mother says that she has seen me so near suffocation that I was nearly black in the face from the desperate efforts made to get breath. In the cold winter nights, many a night, with the doors and windows of the house thrown wide open, in order to hinder the apparent danger of strangulation. In this condition, on the 18th of October, 1866, having heard of DR. KEYSER'S skill in curing this disease, I called on him, in company with my husband Joseph Meyers, but I must confess, with a great deal of doubt as to effecting a permanent cure. Dr. KEYSER examined me carefully, and my lungs all over, with his LUNG SOUND, and told me that with care I would get well. I persevered with his medicines for over a year, and am to-day in vigorous health, and TOTALLY FREE FROM THE ASTHMA, and its terribly disagreeable attendants. I have had, once in awhile, a slight attack of the disease, but I regard my health as entirely re-established, and if I do have any attack, a few doses of the Doctor's medicine immediately relieves it. I cannot feel too thankful for the exemption from a disease which used to cost me whole weeks and months of loss of sleep, besides suffering which none but those who are subject to this disease can fully appreciate or describe.

NANCY MEYERS,
MARY MOUNT JOY, (her mother,)
GEORGIANA FISHER.

Birmingham, Dec. 9, 1867.

The case of Mrs. Myers, recited above, is one of more than ordinary importance, because of the violence of the attacks their continued length, and the great prostration of all the vital powers attending the disease. Any one who knew her during the time she was a sufferer from the disease of which she was cured, and will look at her now, the very picture of robust health, cannot but admit that the cure is one of more than ordinary character, inasmuch as we hear of Asthma every day of our lives, being a disease of an incurable nature. Let those who doubt investigate for themselves.

SIGHT RESTORED.

The case to which we alluded some weeks ago, of Christiana Fisher, of Beaver county, is now entirely confirmed by the appearance of Miss Fisher herself, who to-day called on DR. KEYSER in person, to thank him for his kindness and skill in restoring her to ENTIRE AND PERFECT SIGHT. Miss Fisher had been nearly blind for four months. She was so blind that she could not distinguish any object so as to make out what it was. The case is remarkable, as hundreds of cases like her's are doomed to never-ending darkness, on the flimsy pretext that there is no cure, and nothing can be done. She was under DR. KEYSER's treatment for two months, and before she applied to him, through her brother, SIMON P. FISHER, slight hopes were entertained of her ever getting her sight. Her case is well known in the neighborhood where she resides, and has been regarded as one of extraordinary recovery.

We, the undersigned, know of the cure of Miss Fisher, and bear willing testimony to the fact above stated.

The case above referred to was entirely cured by medicines to purify the blood, and it is witnessed by scores of persons who have known Miss Fisher, and have a knowledge of her total restoration to health, and the recovery of her sight, as the accompanying letter of her brother sets forth:

DR. KEYSER—This is the list of names that have to your advertisement of the cure of my sister, Christiana Fisher. They were all willing to put their names down, and were very much astonished to see that you brought her sight so soon. My mother sends her thanks to you; she says "you are one of the greatest men in the world." She says if we had not come across you she believes her child would not be living at this time. We all join in sending our love and respects to you.

PULMONARY CONSUMPTION, RESULTING FROM PLEURISY, CURED.

Statement of George Ford, carpenter, of No. 16 Sampson street, Allegheny City:

I took a violent attack of pleurisy, in May, 1866, which left me with a cough lasting all summer, wearing away my strength and gradually undermining my health. During this attack of pleurisy I had several physicians of the highest reputation in the city. After I had partially recovered from the pleurisy, I was advised to go into the country, which I did, and when there a called in a doctor, who told me my left lung was affected, and that if something were not done soon I would die of CONSUMPTION. I lingered on from this time until about the middle of June, my cough and lung disease gradually growing worse, and I weaker every day, and almost despairing of ever getting well. In this state of despondency, and knowing the general belief of the incurability of Consumption, and having heard of cures made by DR. KEYSER, and seeing his advertisement in the newspapers, I was induced in October last to call on the Doctor at his office, 120 Penn street, and had him examine my lungs with his "LUNG SOUND." He told me the upper lobe of my left lung was very much diseased, but he thought with great care and the perseverance in the use of his medicine, I would get well. At the time I called on Dr. Keyser my pulse was over one hundred and thirty beats in a minute, and I was generally prostrated, and had to cough night and day. I commenced the Doctor's treatment in October, with a feeble, broken constitution, and continued it faithfully until the present time. The Doctor's medicines helped me from the very start, and I could gradually feel myself getting stronger, and my cough and expectoration lessening. I have gained greatly in flesh, and consider myself well; all the rattling of my lung has ceased, and my general health is in every way good. All my relatives and friends know of the advanced stage of my disease and my extraordinary recovery. One of the medicines given me by Dr. Keyser was a medicine called LUNG CURE, which I took in connection with the other treatment.

GEORGE FORD.

PITTSBURGH, March 20, 1867.

ANOTHER CURE OF CONSUMPTION.

STATEMENT OF JOHN G. WIGHAM, OF TURTLE CREEK, ALLEGHENY COUNTY.

I was discharged from the United States army in January, 1866, on account of a wound in the head, from a shell, and a disease which the army physicians pronounced CONSUMPTION. I had a terrible cough and fell away in strength and flesh and was unable to do anything. Shortly after my return from the army, I made application to a physician of my neighborhood and, afterwards, to another in Pittsburgh of high reputation, whose remedies I used faithfully for five months, without any benefit whatever, but rather grew worse, and wasted in flesh and strength every day. In August, 1866, my mother took me to DOCTOR KEYSER, of 120 Penn street, whose skill in such cases like mine had been highly spoken of and put myself under his treatment The Doctor examined my lungs very carefully with his LUNG SOUND, and told me that my left lung was badly diseased at the upper part, but if I was careful he thought he could cure me by following his directions closely, which I did from that day to this. I gradually improved under Dr. Keyser's medicines from the first week I commenced to take them, and my general health has improved and my chest, where it was sunken away, and where it pained me, has become full and strong and free from pain. I can now do a full day's work, and take great pleasure in giving my testimony in favor of Dr. Keyser's treatment and medicines.
